Global Perspectives on Language Assessment Spiros Papageorgiou, Kathleen M. Bailey, 2019-02-07. The sixth volume in the Global Research on Teaching and Learning English series offers up to date research on the rapidly changing field of language assessment. The book features original research with chapters reporting on a variety of international education settings from a range of diverse perspectives. Covering a broad range of key topics including scoring processes, test development and student and teacher perspectives, contributors offer a comprehensive overview of the landscape of language assessment and discuss the consequences and impact for learners, teachers, learning programs and society. Focusing on the assessment of language proficiency, this volume provides an original compendium of cutting edge research that will benefit TESOL and TEFL students, language assessment scholars and language teachers.

Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel, 2016-11-18. Volume III of the Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning like Volumes I and II is a comprehensive state of the art overview of current research into social contexts of second language (L2), foreign language (FL) teaching and learning, language policy, curriculum types of instruction, incremental language skills such as listening, speaking, reading, writing, vocabulary and grammar, international communication, pragmatics, assessment and testing. It differs from earlier volumes in its main purpose to provide a more in depth discussion and detailed focus on the development of the essential language skills required for any type of communication: speaking, listening, reading, vocabulary, grammar and writing. Volume III preserves continuity with previous volumes in its coverage of all the classical areas of research in L2/FL teaching and learning and applied linguistics but rather than offering a historical review of disciplinary traditions it explores innovations and new directions of research, acknowledges the enormous complexity of teaching and learning the essential language abilities and offers a diversity of perspectives Chapter authors are all leading authorities in their disciplinary areas What's new in Volume III Updates the prominent areas of research including the sub disciplines addressed in Volumes I and II and represents the disciplinary mainstays Considers and discusses perspectives held by different schools of thought on the what the how and the why of teaching foundational language skills including theories pedagogical principles and their implementation in practice Captures new and ongoing developments and trends in the key areas of L2 FL teaching and learning and innovative research topics that have gained substantial recognition in current publications including the role of corpora technology and digital literacy in L2 FL teaching and learning Examines new trends in language pedagogy and research such as an increased societal emphasis on teaching academic language for schooling somewhat contradictory definitions of literacy and the growing needs for instruction in intercultural communication
