The Rhetoric of Cultural Dialogue Jeffrey S. Librett, 2000 In this groundbreaking work the author effects the first extended rhetorical philosophical reading of the historically problematic relationship between Jews and Germans based on an analysis of texts from the Enlightenment through Modernism by Moses Mendelssohn Friedrich and Dorothea Schlegel Karl Marx Richard Wagner Friedrich Nietzsche and Sigmund Freud The theoretical underpinning of the work lies in the author's rereading in terms of contemporary rhetorical theory of the medieval tradition known as figural representation which defines the Jewish Christian relation as that between the dead prefigural letter and the living fulfilled spirit After arguing that the German Enlightenment ultimately plays out the historical phantasm of a necessary Judaization of Protestant rationality the author shows that German Early Romanticism consists fundamentally in the attempt to solve the aporias raised by this impossible confrontation between Protestant spirit and Jewish letter In readings of Dorothea Schlegel Mendelssohn's daughter and her husband Friedrich Schlegel the author provides a new interpretation of the Neo Catholic turn of later German Romanticism Further he situates the proleptic end and reversal of the project of Jewish emancipation in the two extreme versions of late nineteenth century anti Judaism those of Marx and Wagner here viewed as binary concretizations of a specifically post Romantic paganized Protestantism Finally the author argues that twentieth century Modernism as represented by Nietzsche and Freud renews if in a multiply ironic displacement the secret Judaizing tendencies of the Enlightenment Fascism and Communism both denigrate this Modernism which affirms the letter of language as quasi synonymous with the force of temporality or anticipatory repetition that disrupts all claims to the full presence of spirit The book ends with a note on recent debates about Holocaust memory
