Encyclopedia of Educational Psychology Neil J. Salkind, Kristin Rasmussen, 2008-01-17 The field of educational psychology draws from a variety of diverse disciplines including human development across the life span measurement and statistics learning and motivation and teaching And within these different disciplines many other fields are featured including psychology anthropology education sociology public health school psychology counseling history and philosophy In fact when taught at the college or university level educational psychology is an ambitious course that undertakes the presentation of many different topics all tied together by the theme of how the individual can best function in an educational setting loosely defined as anything from pre school through adult education Educational psychology can be defined as the application of what we know about learning and motivation development and measurement and statistics to educational settings both school and community based

Schooling by Design Grant Wiggins, Jay McTighe, 2007-07-15 Why despite years of trying have efforts to achieve lasting effective school reform fallen short What curricular and policy elements must be in place to move forward How should the roles of teachers and education leaders be defined to best support the point of school Grant Wiggins and Jay McTighe answer these and other questions in Schooling by Design Mission Action and Achievement Building on the premise of Understanding by Design their acclaimed framework for curriculum instruction and assessment the authors present a compelling argument for using the same approach to reach a grand goal the reform of schooling as a whole In their view reform rests on six pillars A relentless focus on the long term mission of school enabling learners to demonstrate understanding and mature habits of mind A curriculum and assessment framework that honors the mission and ensures that content coverage is no longer the accepted approach to instruction A set of principles of learning that support all decisions about pedagogy and planning Structures policies job descriptions practices and use of resources consistent with mission and learning principles An overall strategy that includes ongoing feedback and adjustment and A set of tactics linked to strategy including a planning process that uses backward design to accomplish the key work of reform Practical insightful and provocative Schooling by Design elaborates on each of these elements and presents educators with both the rationale and the methodology for closing the gap between what we say we want from school and what school actually delivers for turning vision into reality
