goes on a gay website looking for romance he finds more than he bargained for Rejecting all the usual requests for hook ups he searches for something more sincere And he finds it in the most unexpected of places as he is drawn to the profile of a man in a faraway place Amir an Algerian descended from desert nomads has posted a profile looking for the love of his life Sam finds it amazing that a gay man born in the Algerian desert has the bravery to not only declare he is gay but also to admit his dream is to find a husband to spend his life with While Sam doesn't consider himself the marrying kind he starts chatting with Amir telling himself he just wants to learn about another culture His friends laugh at him saying this man just wants to use him to emigrate to the west and take him for his money But he refuses to believe it sensing a sincerity he has never seen with anyone else The two begin a dialogue that moves to weekly Skype sessions discussions of religion and world politics assistance with life challenges and finally a declaration of love and an invitation Can these two men from vastly different worlds and cultures meet and find common ground for a romance The challenges are great and spending a life together seems like an impossible dream While Sam's friends continue to discourage him he knows he cannot give up this man Is Amir sincere or is Sam being used There is only one way to find out if Amir is really sincere And Sam knows what he has to do
