

PRAYER FOR GRADUATES

Heavenly Father, Surround those who are graduating with
your grace.

Bless them with hope so that they move into the future with eager and open hearts.

Help them to put the knowledge, skills, and insights gained through their education to use for the good of all humankind.

Inspire them to believe in the goodness of life even when faced with challenges and difficulties.

As they commence with their lives, may they grow ever more grateful and wise.

All of this we ask in the name of Jesus, your beloved Son. Amen.

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1975

Common Spaces Between Us Melynne Rust, 2020-01-09

Polarization occurring in the United States today is not only a social concern it is also a spiritual condition of the heart How can we connect with others in the midst of our differences when deep in our hearts we might harbor shadows such as judgment or fear In Common Spaces Between Us Melynne Rust explores this question by inviting readers into the diverse college campus community where she served as chaplain and where much to her surprise and chagrin she found herself struggling at times to connect with students amid differences She was skeptical of Muslim students requesting bidets in the chapel bathrooms She balked at visiting a student in the hospital psychiatric unit She was afraid to publicly stand up for LGBTQ students She butted heads with students who shared her religion but not her beliefs She had presumed she inherently would live out her values to honor the dignity and equality of all yet in her interactions with others she kept bumping into her own shadows stifling connection Ultimately she discovered that true connection happens when we embody practices that recognize honor and nurture the good in both ourselves and others in the common spaces between us
