

INTRODUCTION

Our senses play an important role when we travel and taste is the sense that can elevate our travel experience to another level. It has the power to evoke nostalgic travel memories decades after the moment is gone - whether it's sipping on a dry white wine as the sun dips into the sea, dining on a bold invention at the hottest restaurant, inhaling the aroma of freshly roasted single-origin coffee beans or slurping back a juicy oyster plucked from the sea before your eyes.

This book takes you on a tour of 40 of Australia and New Zealand's best epicurean regions, with itineraries featuring experiences from cocktail bars tucked down laneways in cosmopolitan cities to generations-old wineries in rural beauty. This book shows you why Australia and New Zealand are considered such heavyweights on the global gourmet scene. Surrounded by water, fresh seafood is at the fore; nutrient-rich soil paves the way for vibrant produce; creative chefs continue to reinvent what Australian and NZ cuisine is, and indigenous ingredients are taking centre stage on plates.

With an abundance of hip restaurants, food markets, olive groves, backpacker towns, craft-beer breweries and vineyards, Australia and New Zealand is a trans-Tasman tapestry of gourmet spots just waiting to give your tastebuds a trip.
