patients will die within three years 75% within five This usually happens after the standard treatments and chemotherapy fail and must be discontinued due to harmful side effects or weakening effectiveness resumed cancer growth and the failure of bones or key organs I am still feeling fine no pain living a normal life and I have completed eight months of chemotherapy with a 63% drop in my PSA prostate cancer blood test without major side effects or rising PSA I have fought this cancer and its personal consequences in more than a hundred ways as described here Above all a lifetime of fitness and my current excellent physical and mental condition supplemented by great medical care and everything else I can learn or think of is partially responsible for my success in living beyond the average life span for my particular fatal disease We cannot know which weapon or how much each one contributes to the extension of life so we must use them all The doctors all say that cancer survival is very unpredictable and I figured that many of the positive outcomes must depend on how comprehensively and how hard the individual fights So I immediately started this book and organized my fight I was extremely unfortunate most prostate cancer either is so slow growing or eliminated by removal that survivors live for many years In my case it had already spread or metastasized to the bones prior to the operation and that cancer is inoperable and incurable But some people in that condition die very early while others like me live much longer This is highly unpredictable in individual cases due to variation in patient condition treatment effectiveness and other unknowns More than half of all people newly diagnosed with cancer will be cured or given extended remission They will die of something else Of the other half a large number have treatable cancer and they still have many years to live The remainder probably including me have learned that they have incurable cancer that has grown too strong or spread and taken root in such places that it cannot be killed or removed and death is likely in the next few months or years Nevertheless normally incurable cancer and conventional predictability sometimes fail and others may prolong life by fighting with strong mental and physical effort As the disease progresses and is treated and science advances sometimes in great leaps we are rarely sure of which group we are in That uncertainty that hope and the dreadful power of cancer call for great strength of character and effort in both patients and those around them This book is about that The animal instinct to survive is in humans alone expanded in our unique cortex to something much greater the intelligent understanding of self awareness and an intense desire to prolong the experience growth and emotion of life The human spirit beyond the mere motivation of existence is largely responsible for all that our species has conquered and achieved It is an essential quality to be trained treasured and put to use and one of the finest ways is to survive continue and improve our exceptional life through our collective and individual intellect In the last century medical science the visibility of living in distant years and the recognition that we are and can be responsible for increasing our own longevity have ad

Roizen, Mehmet Oz, 2007-10-30 The body is the most fascinating machine ever created and nobody talks about it in ways that are as illuminating and compelling as Dr Michael Roizen and Dr Mehmet Oz Most people think of the aging of our bodies the same way we think of the aging of our cars the older we get the more inevitable it is that we are going to break down Most of us believe that at age 40 or so we begin the slow and steady decline of our minds our eyes our ears our joints our arteries our libido and every other system that affects the quality of life and how long we live it But according to Dr Roizen and Dr Oz that's a mistake Aging isn't a decline in our systems It's actually very purposeful The very systems and biological processes that age us are designed to help us when we're a little bit younger So what's our role as part of the aging population To learn how those systems work so we can reprogram them to work the way they did when we were younger Your goal should be to stay young at any age That means you live a high quality of life with everything from working joints to working genitals until the day you die At the core of this landmark book are the Major Aged 14 biological processes that control your rate of aging Some you've heard of some you haven't and some you never knew contributed to the aging process Some speed decline others inhibit your repair mechanisms These Major Ageds are everything from short telomeres and inefficient mitochondria to stem cells and wacky hormones The doctors explain the principles of longevity and many of the causes of aging and how to fight the effects The climax of the book is a 14 day plan to help you along your path to staying young The doctors want you to be able to integrate important processes into your daily life in order to make staying young routine but first you'll need to measure your real age and health right now Staying young encompasses your emotions and mental health as well as your exercise habits eating habits personal hygiene and genes among other things Wouldn't you like to know how to prevent your body from aging badly The original YOU book showed how bodies work in general and YOU On a Diet explained how bodies lose weight and stay fit Now in YOU Staying Young Drs Michael Roizen and Mehmet Oz illuminate the mysterious mechanisms with a lively metaphor the modern city What differentiates a vibrant and thriving city that ages gracefully from one that is worn down and rusted out Despite genetic differences which are like the geography upon which the city is built cities age differently because of the way residents treat their education system stem cells power plants mitochondria electrical grids brains transportation routes blood vessels and landfills fat You as mayor resident and street cleaner have the power to balance your biological budget to ensure a life that s both long and strong Thankfully just as cities can invest in renewal and improving their repair processes so can you YOU Staying Young is filled with signature YOU Tools including YOU Tests YOU Tips and visual and verbal metaphors to bring the science to life Lost in Illusion Hilary O'Brien,2006-08 Imagine Not being able to move from your shoulders down lying in the same bed in the same room 24 hours a day for over 12 years Lost in Illusion is a candid and informative personal account of living with Multiple Sclerosis Special emphasis is placed on many of the popular issues hitting the media now such as medical mistakes neglect and even abuse of the sick and disabled in our country today Are you or a loved one suffering from a disease Have you been told that there is nothing else you can do for this disease Have you exhausted all resources and have been unable to come up with any answers Do you need more information on where to go how to get there and which doctors to see for cutting edge treatment Do you need to know more about the promising hope of stem cell therapy If you answered yes to one or more of these questions then Lost in Illusion is a MUST READ You Michael F.
