Building Air Bases in the Negev Frank N. Schubert, 1992 Building Air Bases in the Negev is a remarkable story of the U S Army Corps of Engineers role supporting national diplomatic initiatives overseas while managing a major construction project in Israel Frank N Schubert has written a superbly organized account tracing from the spring of 1979 to the summer of 1982 the development and completion of two ultramodern air bases at a cost that only exceeded original estimates by less than 3 percent As Schubert suggests the air base program helped bring peace between two long term antagonists Israel and Egypt Schubert s work serves as an important case study for analyzing not only engineering project management and construction practices but also demanding sociopolitical cultural and business conditions in sovereign foreign lands
