Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein, 2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny Handbook of Parenting Marc H. preemie Stimpson saw his son get a spinal tap without anesthesia it isn't given to micro preemies and three times witnessed Alex stop breathing once on his lap Stimpson and his wife were at the hospital every day and there they encountered not only how far the science of saving preemies has advanced but how far it hasn't and how far healthcare and other professionals need to go to understand what parents go through when their infant lives in a hospital The Stimpsons got a crash course in life behind the billboard of medical miracle and learned how care of preemies can greatly differ and perhaps most important how patients families must learn to be consumers when trying to find that care What keeps a family going when a child spends a year in the hospital In compelling prose Stimpson traces the life of his child from birth to kindergarten four wings in two hospitals coming home with a roomful of medical gear and round the clock drugs and nursing the gains and downturns of home therapy through Early Intervention finding and prospering in a special needs preschool a diagnosis of autism and the ongoing battle to give Alex a fair shot at childhood and at life Co-Parenting Strangers Theresa J.
