Stephan de Beer,Rehana Vally,2022-02-10 In Facing homelessness Finding inclusionary collaborative solutions we face the other and in facing the other we face ourselves This book contributes to an emerging body of knowledge on street homelessness in the South African context It is meant for researchers and scholars who are committed to finding solutions for street homelessness It offers conceptual frameworks and practical guidelines for a liberating and transformative response to homelessness It brings together authors from a wide range of disciplines fusing the rigour of researchers the vision of activists and the lived experience of practitioners In this volume the causes of street homelessness in South Africa today and its different faces are traced It critiques singular solutions and interrogates the political institutional and moral failures that contribute to the systemic exclusion of homeless persons and other vulnerable populations from society It proposes rights based interventions as part of a radical re imagination of how street homelessness can be ended one person and one neighbourhood at a time The analysis by the authors steers the direction of new ways of doing and being that could demonstrate concrete viable and sustainable alternatives to the exclusionary realities faced by homeless persons It argues for solution based approaches aimed at radical forms of social inclusion and achieved through broad based and creative collaborations by all spheres of society In the face and presence of street homelessness as one expression of urban vulnerability and deep socio economic inequality society is confronted with a clear political institutional moral and personal obligation This volume calls for a reclamation of community in its most inclusionary life affirming and interdependent sense asserting that we truly are well because of others and we are unwell if others are It is a call to reclaim our common humanity in the context of inclusive communities where all are equally welcome and bestowed with dignity and honour      Universal
