Our Father, Our Teacher Christopher J. Reeves, 2022-09-16 From the beginning God created men and women in his own image as the objects of his love His intention has been to father mankind raising us as his children While the intimacy of this relationship was broken through the fall our Father has never stopped loving us His faithful lovingkindness is unchanged And through Jesus we not only see the intimate relationship of Father and Son as the divine pattern but we find ourselves restored as children in his household Through Jesus we can experientially live in relationship with our Father and through the working of the Holy Spirit within affectionately call him our Abba The greatest opportunity is now afforded to us to walk in loving intimacy with our Father as he raises us teaches us his ways and matures within us his divine nature of other centered love Our Father Our Teacher is a biblical exploration of how God is drawing men and women to himself in an experiential relationship of love and learning

Reflections on Issues in Judaic Law and Lore Dr. Martin Sicker, 2023-02-22 The fundamental basis of Judaism as is well known is the Torah the teachings contained in the Pentateuch the five biblical books the composition of which is traditionally attributed to Moses These teachings may be grouped in two basic categories matters between man and man individually as well as societally and matters between man and God The basic guidelines that apply in matters between man and man are referred to as mishpatim or ordinances whereas those applying to matters between man and God are referred to as statutes The fundamental distinction between the two categories is that the ordinances are subject to human judgment whereas the statutes are not the divine reason for them a mystery about which people may speculate but cannot know for certain The present work is primarily concerned with four statutes that have direct and significant impact on the lives of those committed to compliance with them Since simply rejecting any of them is not an acceptable option over the millennia since their codification in the Torah efforts have been made to deal with them under conditions that are significantly different from those that prevailed at the beginning of their revelation Given that the statutes as set forth in the Torah cannot be tampered with issues have been raised regarding how they are to be applied in the contemporary Jewish world These reflections are not intended to propose answers to those issues but only to clarify their significance and their present treatment in the various schools of Judaic thought
