Lodgings In Exile:

Liberty, Fraternity, Exile Matthew J. Smith, 2014-10-20 In this moving microhistory of nineteenth century Haiti and Jamaica Matthew J Smith details the intimate connections that illuminate the conjoined histories of both places after slavery The frequent movement of people between Haiti and Jamaica in the decades following emancipation in the British Caribbean brought the countries into closer contact and influenced discourse about the postemancipation future of the region In the stories and genealogies of exiles and politicians abolitionists and diplomats laborers and merchants and mothers fathers and children Smith recognizes the significance of nineteenth century Haiti to regional development On a broader level Smith argues that the history of the Caribbean is bound up in the shared experiences of those who crossed the straits and borders between the islands just as much as in the actions of colonial powers Whereas Caribbean historiography has generally treated linguistic areas separately and emphasized relationships with empires Smith concludes that such approaches have obscured the equally important interactions among peoples of the Caribbean

Margaret E. Kenna, 2013-12-19 Illustrated with prints from a unique archive of glass and celluloid negatives from the Aegean island of Anafi this book deals with the life of people who were sent into internal exile under the Metaxas dictatorship 1936 1942 Like others before and after this regime used imprisonment internal deportation and exile as a means of containing and isolating a wide variety of people who were thought to be public dangers Drawing on published and unpublished memoirs and on firsthand accounts of former exiles it gives a vivid picture of a by no means unified collection of people facing a common set of problems on an island at the borders of the Greek State During the Occupation the Anafi exiles faced privation hunger and finally the dissolution of the commune This is a human drama which will interest a wide range of readers

Swann,2017 On the accession of Louis XIII in 1610 following the assassination of his father the Bourbon dynasty stood on unstable foundations For all of Henri IV s undoubted achievements he had left his son a realm that was still prey to the ambitions of an aristocracy that possessed independent military force and was prepared to resort to violence and vendetta in order to defend its interests and honour To establish his personal authority Louis XIII was forced to resort to conspiracy and murder and even then his authority was constantly challenged Yet a little over a century later as the reign of Louis XIV drew to a close such disobedience was impossible Instead a simple royal command expressing the sovereign s disgrace was sufficient to compel the most powerful men and women in the kingdom to submit to imprisonment or internal exile without a trial or an opportunity to justify their conduct abandoning their normal lives leaving families careers offices and possessions behind in obedience to their sovereign To explain that transformation this volume examines the development of this new politics of disgrace why it emerged how it was conceptualised the conventions that governed its use and reactions to it not only from the perspective of the monarch and his noble subjects but also the great corporations of the realm and the wider public Although that new model of disgrace proved remarkably successful influencing the ideas and actions of the dominant social elites it was nevertheless contested and the critique of disgrace connects to the second aim of this work which is to use shifting attitudes to the practice as a means of investigating the nature of Old Regime political culture and some of the dramatic and profound changes it experienced in the years separating Louis XIII s dramatic seizure of power from the French Revolution The Exile's Song Sally McKee,2017-01-01 Cover Half title Title Copyright Contents Acknowledgments Chapter 1 Lost Chapter 2 A Family Long Free Chapter 3 City of Sound Chapter 4 City of Dust Chapter 5 City of Song Chapter 6 City of Exile Chapter 7 The Lost Violin Chapter 8 Found Notes Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Y Z The Cavaliers in Exile 1640-1660 G.
