John H. Roush Jr, Col. John H. Roush, 2009-02-23 This volume presents a dramatic collection of significant combat experiences of 79 men in WWII as told from one combat veteran to another In the 86 chapters are stories involving all the various branches of combat service and all of the various theaters of war Within reminiscences veterans of dangerous encounters are much more apt to open up with details in discussions with men who have also experienced combat Many find it emotionally distressing to talk of the war with the general public or to recall the horrors of warfare This is not a history book nor any attempt to tell the big picture of grand campaigns Instead it is a collection of personal involvements in one at a time incidents of conflict Many ask what was it like in WWII for our conflicts in recent years have been vastly different The Grammar of Criminal Law: American, Comparative, and International George P. Fletcher, 2007-06-11 The Grammar of Criminal Law is a 3

volume work that addresses the field of international and comparative criminal law with its primary focus on the issues of international concern ranging from genocide to domestic efforts to combat terrorism to torture and to other international crimes The first volume is devoted to foundational issues The Grammar of Criminal Law is unique in its systematic emphasis on the relationship between language and legal theory there is no comparable comparative study of legal language Written in the spirit of Fletcher's classic Rethinking Criminal Law this work is essential reading in the field of international and comparative law

Current Debates in Global Justice Gillian Brock, Darrel Moellendorf, 2005-03-22 The papers collected in this volume represent some of the finest recent work by political philosophers and political theorists in the area of global justice Covering both theoretical and applied issues these papers are distinguished by their exceptional quality Moreover they give the reader a sense both of the scope of the field as it is currently emerging and the direction that the debates seem to be taking This anthology is essential reading for anyone serious about understanding the current pressing issues in Global Justice Studies With contributions from Richard Arneson Charles Beitz Luis Cabrera Omar Dahbour Robert Goodin Dale Jamieson John Lango David Miller Thomas Pogge Sanjay Reddy Mathias Risse Gopal Sreenivasan and James Sterba

Exploring the Planets Fred Taylor, 2016-02-25 The planets fascinate us and naturally we care about our own Earth and things like how well we can forecast the weather and whether climate is really changing Exploring the Planets offers a personal account on how the space programme evolved It begins in the era of the first blurry views of our Earth as seen from space and ends with current plans for sophisticated robots on places as near as our neighbours Venus and Mars and as far away as the rainy lakelands of Saturn's planet sized moon Titan Examining the scientific goals of these complex voyages of discovery and the joys and hardships of working to achieve them The Space Age is now about 50 years old and for those lucky enough to be part of it at its inception it's filled a worklong lifetime Today several satellites around the Earth have studied the atmosphere and the climate using instruments on board that the author helped design and build Deep space missions were embarked upon to visit the planets all of the major bodies six planets the Moon and minor bodies asteroids and comets of the classical Solar System have been scrutinised close up by experiments built in various laboratories worldwide Most of the narrative is based on the author's experiences at the world's space agencies research labs and conferences and at other places as diverse as Cape Canaveral and No 10 Downing Street

The Library Stuart Kells, 2018-04-10 A sharp and delightful celebration of libraries around the world and throughout time for the passionate bibliophile and literary historian Excellent Tracks the history of that greatest of all cultural institutions The Washington Post Libraries are much more than mere collections of volumes The best are magical fabled places whose fame has become part of the cultural wealth they are designed to preserve Some still exist today some are lost like those of Herculaneum and Alexandria some have been sold or dispersed and some never existed such as those libraries imagined by J R R Tolkien Umberto Eco and Jorge Luis Borges among others Ancient libraries grand baroque libraries scientific libraries memorial libraries personal libraries clandestine libraries Stuart Kells tells the stories of their creators their prizes their secrets and their fate To research this book Kells traveled around the world with his young family like modern day Library Tourists Kells discovered that all the world's libraries are connected in beautiful and complex ways that in the history of libraries fascinating patterns are created and repeated over centuries More important he learned that stories about libraries are stories about people containing every possible human drama The Library is a fascinating and engaging exploration of libraries as places of beauty and wonder It's a celebration of books as objects a celebration of the anthropology and physicality of books and bookish space and an account of the human side of these hallowed spaces by a leading and passionate bibliophile The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay assume my life's glamorous filled with combustible chemistry and most of all romance Ha I can only wish With a deadline looming I've escaped to my family's cabin on Anderson Island to free myself from distractions My plan's great until a man who could pass as a cover model on one of my books comes to my rescue Is there chemistry Sure Is he everything I'd look for in a guy Absolutely But will my career be at risk if I give into my desire Luke For a player women line up outside the locker room For coaches we're lucky to get in the game As the youngest NFL coach in the league I live eat breathe and even sleep football To gear up for this season I return to my home on Anderson Island for a much needed break When Dani literally crashes into my life my mind's suddenly on the sexy brunette with a sailor's mouth rather than my team's next play She has me dusting off another playbook entirely making me wonder did I make the right call Sports Romance Holiday Romance Secret Identities Football Romance The International Standard,1887 A Companion to Literary Evaluation Richard

Bradford,Madelena Gonzalez,Kevin De Ornellas,2024-03-25 The first critical survey of its kind devoted solely to literary evaluation Companion to Literary Evaluation bridges the gap between the non academic literary world where evaluation is deeply ingrained and the world of academia where evaluation is rarely considered Encouraging readers to formulate and articulate arguments that balance instinctive judgment and reasoned assessment this unique volume addresses key issues regarding literary values from the perspective of analytical aesthetics and the philosophy of literature Bringing together a diverse panel of contributors the Companion explores competing theories of literary evaluation the reasons for evaluating theater and lyric poetry in performance the question of value in literary theory debates over Modernism s negative impact on literature the possibility of evaluating aesthetic beauty through scientific and formalist methods the nature and status of literary evaluation as a branch of criticism aesthetics in applied and community theater evaluation outside academia the perils of extreme relativism and subjectivism in literary evaluation evaluation in schools and much more Contributors question and reassess the reputations of authors across the canon from Shakespeare and James Shirley to T S Eliot Kathleen Raine Virginia Woolf Joyce and Beckett amongst others The Companion Illustrates how seemingly divergent perspectives on the artistic qualities and value of literature can sometimes overlap Covers the standard range of literary genres while including others such as unfinished novels freelance journalism and lyric poetry in performance Offers methodologies that demonstrate why literature can be treated as something different from other forms of language and therefore assessed as art Explores the importance of maintaining clarity and specificity in the evaluation of literary works Companion to Literary Evaluation is a must read for undergraduates research students lecturers and academics in search of fresh perspectives on standard literary critical issues Courting History James F. Simon, 2025-05-13 A Supreme Court historian s memoir places court events in the larger context of American history
