

The First Semester in College: Personal Experience

Throughout my time here at Shippensburg University, I have gotten the great opportunity to learn so much about the ways of college and how to improve my academic life and my social life. Despite it being overwhelming and stressful, these experiences have helped me develop and learn new advice and resources on how I can personally succeed while attending college. While there are many things that I learned in this first semester, the most notable is the upkeep of a positive mindset and motivation levels, the usage of a planner, and the importance of college organizations and clubs.

One of the first things that I learned was that you have to develop a good mental mindset and maintain levels of motivation throughout the semester to achieve greatness. Having a good mental mindset was important for me, this semester because it allowed me to stay positive and develop a good working environment for all the people who were around me. Establishing and conserving good levels of motivation was also a priority for me because the ability to get distracted was very evident and common due to other contributing factors like work and family events. Both of these behaviors were very commonly shown throughout this last semester while working at my on-campus job at the Shippensburg University Bookstore.

The most recent example of these behaviors being shown was throughout the week before Thanksgiving break because I had to write three papers, give a speech presentation, as well as work my daily hours at my job on campus. Most of these
