The Saddle and Show Horse Chronicle, 1917 Talking about Food Sofia Rüdiger, Susanne Mühleisen, 2020-06-15 All humans eat and all humans speak activities which in social life often but not always co occur We talk while eating and drinking with others but food is also a prominent literal and metaphorical discursive topic which contributes to establishing communities and identities This omnipresence of eating and drinking in our daily lives has led to a public fascination with foodways The contributions in this edited collection investigate the connection between language and food from a variety of perspectives As food discourses operate on local global and mediated levels they are intertwined with notions of identity and culture and thus shed light on intimate understandings of ourselves as human beings Talking about Food The Social and the Global in Eating Communities provides up to date and thought provoking contributions to the linguistics of food The book is essential reading for anyone interested in food related subjects National Hotel Review, 1928 RMS Queen Mary David Ellery, 2025-04-22 Probably the most famous and certainly one of the best loved ships in the world the Cunard transatlantic liner RMS Queen Mary has now been preserved at Long Beach California as a floating hotel and tourist attraction for more than fifty years comfortably longer than her 31 year career as an ocean liner Laid down in 1930 Queen Mary s construction was severely delayed by the Great Depression Eventually completed in 1936 the ship was an instant success capturing the famous Blue Riband for the fastest crossing of the Atlantic later that year and regaining it in 1938 During the Second World War she served as a troop ship carrying a total of 810 730 troops and also setting the record for the most individuals carried in a single voyage 16 683 which stands to this day By the time she ceased passenger service in 1967 superseded by the airliner as the preferred mode for international travel Queen Mary had carried nearly three million people from royalty politicians and film stars to emigrants and cruise passengers After her sale to the city of Long Beach she underwent a major conversion for her new life as a visitor attraction a role she has continued ever since During this time however her story has been far from straightforward with controversies over management funding and even the structural integrity of the very ship itself She now remains the only 1930s superliner left in the world The original edition of RMS Queen Mary the World s Favourite Liner was published in 1994 This new and expanded edition has been completely revised and brought up to date to describe the ship s last twenty five years and it incorporates a wealth of new photography Lavishly produced and stunningly illustrated throughout with views of the ship under construction at sea in her heyday and at rest in Long Beach it will appeal to all ocean liner enthusiasts and those more general readers fascinated by the heyday of transatlantic travel Food on the Move Sharon Hudgins, 2018-10-15 All aboard for a delicious ride on nine legendary railway journeys Meals associated with train travel have been an important ingredient of railway history for more than a century from dinners in dining cars to lunches at station buffets and foods purchased from platform vendors For many travelers the experience of eating on a railway journey is often a highlight of the trip a major part of the romance of the rails

A delight for rail enthusiasts foodies and armchair travelers alike Food on the Move serves up the culinary history of these famous journeys on five continents from the earliest days of rail travel to the present Chapters invite us to table for the haute cuisine of the elegant dining carriages on the Orient Express the classic American feast of steak and eggs on the Santa Fe Super Chief and home cooked regional foods along the Trans Siberian tracks We eat our way across Canada s vast interior and Australia s spectacular and colorful Outback grab an infamous British railway sandwich to munch on the Flying Scotsman snack on spicy samosas on the Darjeeling Himalayan Toy Train dine at high speed on Japan s bullet train the Shinkansen and sip South African wines in a Blue Train a luxury lounge car featuring windows of glass fused with gold dust Written by eight authors who have traveled on those legendary lines these chapters include recipes from the dining cars and station eateries taken from historical menus and contributed by contemporary chefs as well as a bounty of illustrations A toothsome commingling of dinner triangles and train whistles this collection is a veritable feast of meals on the move
