How They Started Their Brs By David Lester:

How They Started David Lester, 2007-06-01 Lots of us have ideas we think would make great businesses Most of us never do anything with those ideas But for those that do a world of opportunity awaits them This book is about 30 people who acted on their idea made the first steps to start their business and subsequently went on to turn it into a global brand From Innocent to Cobra to Dreams to Dyson we reveal how some of the UK s biggest businesses got of the ground and those very first steps taken by their founders The Corset and Underwear Review ,1959 Universalist Union ,1836 LIFE ,1955-10-31 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use The Pall Mall Budget ,1874 There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari Sinclair Allen, 2021-11-15 In There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari S Allen offers a sweeping and lively ethnographic and intellectual history of what he calls Black gay habits of mind In conversational and lyrical language Allen locates this sensibility as it emerged from radical Black lesbian activism and writing during the long 1980s He traverses multiple temporalities and locations drawing on research and fieldwork conducted across the globe from Nairobi London and Paris to Toronto Miami and Trinidad and Tobago In these locations and archives Allen traces the genealogies of Black gay politics and cultures in the visual art poetry film Black feminist theory historiography and activism of thinkers and artists such as Audre Lorde Marsha P Johnson Essex Hemphill Colin Robinson Marlon Riggs Pat Parker and Joseph Beam Throughout Allen renarrates Black queer history while cultivating a Black gay method of thinking and writing In so doing he speaks to the urgent contemporary struggles for social justice while calling on Black studies to pursue scholarship art and policy derived from the lived experience and fantasies of Black people throughout the world God and Gods in the Deuteronomistic History Corrine Carvalho, John McLaughlin, 2024-10-31 Like other constructs in biblical studies the Deuteronomistic History has come under scrutiny in the 21st century The books beginning with Joshua and concluding with 2 Kings were thought to be at their core a unified explication of Israel s demise in Deuteronomistic terms of sin and its consequences Current scholarship views these books as more disparate and influenced by a number of different texts not limited to Deuteronomy God and Gods in Deuteronomistic History exemplifies the latest research on these Hebrew Scriptures Each study focuses on the question of how God is disclosed in Israel s history Contributors look at the topic in a single book to bring forth the richness and variety of the Deity s descriptions The results show an array of understandings about the divine figure Yhwh whose titles also include El El the Living and Yhwh God in heaven to name but a few A strength of this volume is the meticulous analysis of Mesopotamian and West Semitic sources expressed both textually and in material culture The biblical writers adopted and adapted these ancient Near Eastern sources to create various pictures of God in the Deuteronomistic History at times mirroring the deities of the so called idoltrous religions This book brings forth portrayals of Israel s God as well as other regional deities in their contiguity and complexity across the Deuteronomistic History
