Cronin,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Nineteenth century employers played a crucial role in the training and education of young workers in England This multi disciplinary study traces the connection between problems of technical education development and the increasingly antagonistic relations with skilled workers culminating in the Great Strike and Lockout of 1897 Cronin demonstrates that employers dominated by economic short termism extended their hegemony beyond the boundaries of the factory gates Their reluctance to endorse and sponsor technical education radically influenced the perception of technical education held by government and local authorities Canadian Books in Print ,1990

Malleable Iron Range Company V. National Labor Relations Board ,1979 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Felix Maringe,Martin Prew,2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the books chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Educations present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years
