Driving Change Gibbon, Trish, 2014-06-12 Driving Change tells a story that exemplifies a basic law of physics known to all the application of a relatively small lever can shift weight create movement and initiate change far in excess of its own size It tells a story about a particular instance of development cooperation relatively modest in scope and aim that has nonetheless achieved remarkable things and has been held up as an exemplar of its kind It does not tell a story of flawless execution and perfectly achieved outcomes it is instead a narrative that gives some insight into the structural and organisational arrangements the institutional and individual commitments and above all the work intelligence and passion of its participants which made the SANTED Programme a noteworthy success Sociology in South Africa R.

Sooryamoorthy,2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa Routledge Handbook of Critical Indigenous Studies Brendan Hokowhitu,Aileen Moreton-Robinson,Linda Tuhiwai-Smith,Chris Andersen,Steve

Larkin,2020-12-30 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Indigenous Studies is the first comprehensive overview of the rapidly expanding field of Indigenous scholarship The book is ambitious in scope ranging across disciplines and national boundaries with particular reference to the lived conditions of Indigenous peoples in the first world The contributors are all themselves Indigenous scholars who provide critical understandings of indigeneity in relation to ontology ways of being epistemology ways of knowing and axiology ways of doing with a view to providing insights into how Indigenous peoples and communities engage and examine the worlds in which they are immersed Sections include Indigenous Sovereignty Indigeneity in the 21st Century Indigenous Epistemologies The Field of Indigenous Studies Global Indigeneity This handbook contributes to the re centring of Indigenous knowledges providing material and ideational analyses of social political and cultural institutions and critiquing and considering how Indigenous peoples situate themselves within outside and in relation to dominant discourses dominant postcolonial cultures and prevailing Western thought This book will be of interest to scholars with an interest in Indigenous peoples across Literature History Sociology Critical Geographies Philosophy Cultural Studies Postcolonial Studies Native Studies M ori Studies Hawaiian Studies Native American Studies Indigenous Studies Race Studies Queer Studies Politics Law and Feminism Livelihood and Landscape Change in Africa: Future Trajectories for Improved Well-Being under a Changing Climate Sheona Shackleton, Paul Hebinck,Chinwe Ifejika Speranza,Vanessa Masterson,Dian Spear,Maria Tengö,2019-10-08 This book is based on a Special Issue of the journal LAND that draws together a collection of 11 diverse articles at the nexus of climate change landscapes and livelihoods in rural Africa all explore the links between livelihood and landscape change including shifts in farming practices and natural resource use and management The articles which are all place based case studies across nine African countries cover three not necessarily mutually exclusive thematic areas namely smallholder farming livelihoods under new climate risk five articles long term dynamics of livelihoods and landscape change and future trajectories two articles and natural resource management and governance under a changing climate spanning forests woodlands and rangelands four articles The commonalities key messages and research gaps across the 11 articles are presented in a synthesis article All the case studies pointed to the need for an integrated and in depth understanding of the multiple drivers of landscape and livelihood change and how these interact with local histories knowledge systems cultures complexities and lived realities Moreover where there are interventions such as new governance systems REDD or climate smart agriculture it is critical to interrogate what is required to ensure a fair and equitable distribution of emerging benefits
