From Principles of Learning to Strategies for Instruction Robert J. Seidel, Kathleen C. Perencevich, Allyson L. Kett, 2006-05-28 The primary goal of instructional design is improving the quality of learning and instruction Instructional designers have focused on a number of areas of critical concern and developed a variety of techniques to achieve this goal Reigeluth 1983 1999 Critical areas of concern for those who plan implement and manage instruction include a needs assessment identifying gaps or deficiencies in knowledge and performance to be addressed in instruction b task analysis identifying the types of knowledge skills and attitudes to be developed during instruction c learner analysis determining who the learners are what they know relevant differences etc d instructional strategies developing strategies appropriate for the task and learners involved and e assessment and evaluation determining how to assess individual progress and evaluate programs There are many books already in print that treat the general domain of instructional design as well as texts that target each of these areas of concerns Why then another book on these issues There are several answers to this question Many of the available books treat instruction as a formal process that proceeds according to specific and detailed instructional systems development models see for example Dick Carey Carey 2005 Indeed the US military has created a series of handbooks specifying details of the various instructional development processes see Department of Defense 1999

From Principles of Learning to Strategies for Instruction-with Workbook Companion Robert J. Seidel, Kathy C. Perencevich, Allyson L. and instruction on guided reading Poetry People Sylvia M. Vardell, 2007-06-30 Dr Sylvia Vardell's new children's poetry reference book provides a comprehensive introduction to more than 60 contemporary young people's poets. Focusing primarily on those who are still actively writing today, the author includes poets appropriate for young children through young adults. Each entry features brief biographical information, highlights selected poetry books authored, showcases awards won, notes related Web sites, and provides suggestions for making connections, programming ideas, related books, and activities. The book is ideal for librarians who serve children and young adults as well as for teachers and others who work with children and young adults. Beginning with Arnold Adoff, the list of poets is both impressive and informative. A sample: Francisco Alarcon, Aileen Fisher, Douglas Florian, Nikki Giovanni, Kristine O'Connell, George Jane Yolen, Eloise Greenfield, John Ciardi, and many more. Little Big Minds Marietta McCarty, 2006-12-28 A guide for parents and educators to sharing the enduring ideas of the biggest minds throughout the centuries, from Plato to Jane Addams, with the littlest minds. Children are no strangers to cruelty and courage, to love and to loss, and in this unique book, teacher and educational consultant Marietta McCarty reveals that they are, in fact, natural philosophers. Drawing on a program she has honed in schools around the country over the last fifteen years, Little Big Minds guides parents and educators in introducing philosophy to K-8 children in order to develop their critical thinking, deepen their appreciation for others, and brace them for the philosophical quandaries that lurk in all of our lives, young or old. Arranged according to themes including prejudice, compassion, and death, and featuring the work of philosophers from Plato and Socrates to the Dalai Lama and Martin Luther King Jr., this step-by-step guide to teaching kids how to think philosophically is full of excellent discussion questions, teaching tips, and group exercises.

Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2025-04-23 The fifth edition of Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas: Enhancing Knowledge in the Disciplines provides readers with the knowledge, motivation, tools, and confidence for integrating literacy in their disciplinary classrooms. Offering a literature-based approach to teaching disciplinary literacy, the new edition shares important ways in which teachers of courses in the disciplines can enhance student learning of subject matter and skills while also fostering their growth in the many facets of literacy. Throughout each chapter, Kane provides engaging and creative strategies and activities to make literacy come alive in discipline-specific courses and to encourage students to explore and learn in the classroom. Embedded in each chapter are examples, resources, and strategies to help readers actively engage with and implement literacy practices. These features include Teaching in Action examples by subject area, Activating Prior Knowledge activities to stimulate critical thinking to prepare readers to learn complex theoretical and conceptual material about teaching, learning, and literacy, and end-of-chapter Application Activities to apply field experiences to classroom use. New to the Fifth Edition: Every chapter of this new edition is updated to reflect the current approaches, standards, and benchmarks for discipline-specific literacy. A new introduction with reading activities for professors to exemplify a common reading experience with their students, supported by online reading materials. New book
