images of an Italian American table full of antipasti both hot and cold whisked off to make room for decadent baked pastas topped with molten cheese all before a procession of chicken parm or pork chops all pizzaiola and we haven't even gotten to dessert. It's old school cooking beloved by many and imbued with a deep sense of family. In Italian American Angie Rito and Scott Tacinelli, the chefs of critically acclaimed Don Angie in New York City's West Village, reinvent the genre with a modern point of view that proudly straddles the line between Italian and American. They present family classics passed down through generations side by side with creative spins and riffs inspired by influences both old and new. These comforting dishes feel familiar but are far from expected, including their signature pinwheel lasagna, ribs glazed with orange and Campari, saucy shrimp parm, meatballs, and a cheesy bubbling gratin of broccoli rabe and sharp provolone. Full of family history and recipes that will inspire a new generation, Italian American provides an essential, spirited introduction to an unforgettable way of cooking.
