Screen Design Manual Frank Thissen, 2003-09-11 The Screen Design Manual provides designers of interactive media with a practical working guide for preparing and presenting information that is suitable for both their target groups and the media they are using. It highlights background information and relationships, clarifying them with examples and encourages the further development of the language of digital media. In addition to the basics of perception and learning, psychology, ergonomics, communication theory, imagery research, and aesthetics, the book also considers design, navigation, and orientation elements. Guidelines and checklists along with the comprehensive design of the book support the transfer of information into practice. Frank Thissen teaches multimedia didactics and information design at the University of Applied Sciences in Stuttgart. For over 10 years, he has been developing computer-based training. He has worked for international companies such as Siemens AG and SAP AG. His research project explores the role of emotion in e-learning. www.frank-thissen.de Icons of the American West Gordon Morris Bakken, 2008-06-30 The American West is rich in lore, cultural roots, and iconic images. The subject of countless movies, books, and songs, in many ways it embodies the American spirit. This lively two-volume set presents the stories of some of the most influential and representative Western icons: those that have captured the nation's imagination since the early days of westward exploration and that continue to do so within the environmental and technological frontier that is the modern West. This accessible treatment of the untamed enterprise of the Old West, including cowboys, wild west shows, and gun battles, and the continued entrepreneurial imagination of the paradisiacal New West, including environmentalists and the incorporation of national parks, elevates the reader's understanding of oft-romanticized subjects and the conflicts and cultural changes that made them icons. Narrative entries include Chief Joseph, George Armstrong Custer, Gold Rush, Winchester Model 1873, Frederic Remington, John Muir, Las Vegas, Bill Gates, Disneyland, Yellowstone National Park, Sierra Club. With vibrant photos and descriptive sidebars, this comprehensive set is a must-have for students of American history and culture.
