The Cambridge History of European Romantic Literature Patrick Vincent, 2023-11-09 This wide ranging new history of European Romantic Literature presents a pan European phenomenon which transcended national borders and contributed to a new sense of European cultural identity across the continent Conceived in the same spirit as Madame de Staël's cultural and political agenda at a time when her generous idea of Europe is being challenged on all sides the volume pays close attention to the period's circulation of people ideas and texts It proposes to rethink the period comparatively focusing on various forms of cultural mediation and transfer and on productive tensions synchronicities and interactions within and across borders Organized chronologically its twenty chapters address over five hundred works proposing a coherent historical narrative without completely erasing individual nations specificities By showcasing in particular the place of Britain within continental culture the volume hopes to reactivate critical examinations of Romanticism from a historicised European perspective

Haunted Europe Evert Jan Van Leeuwen, Michael Newton, 2019-07-08 Haunted Europe offers the first comprehensive account of the British and Irish fascination with a Gothic vision of continental Europe tracing its effect on British intellectual life from the birth of the Gothic novel to the eve of Brexit and the symbolic recalibration of the UK's relationship to mainland Europe By focusing on the development of the relationship between Britain and Ireland and continental Europe over more than two hundred years this collection marks an important departure from standard literary critical narratives which have tended to focus on a narrow time period and have missed continuities and discontinuities in our ongoing relationship with the mainland
