How To Be Both:

How to be both Ali Smith, 2014-12-02 MAN BOOKER PRIZE FINALIST A novel all about art's versatility borrowing from painting's fresco technique to make an original literary double take Cements Smith's reputation as one of the finest and most innovative of our contemporary writers By some divine alchemy she is both funny and moving she combines intellectual rigor with whimsy The Los Angeles Review of Books One of the New York Times's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century How to be both is a fast moving genre bending conversation between forms times truths and fictions There's a Renaissance artist of the 1460s There's the child of a child of the 1960s Two tales of love and injustice twist into a singular yarn where time gets timeless structural gets playful knowing gets mysterious fictional gets real and all life's givens get given a second chance Passionate compassionate vitally inventive and scrupulously playful Ali Smith's novels are like nothing else A NOTE TO THE READER Who says stories reach everybody in the same order This novel can be read in two ways and the eBook provides you with both You can choose which way to read the novel by simply clicking on one of two icons CAMERA or EYES The text is exactly the same in both versions the narratives are just in a different order The eBook is produced this way so that readers can randomly have different experiences reading the same text So depending on which icon you select the book will read EYES CAMERA or CAMERA EYES Your friend may be reading it the other way around Enjoy the adventure Having both versions in the same file is intentional

Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden,2021-02-15 This cultural history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life It is one piece of the wider cultural award puzzle and illustrates how far from being parochial or niche lesser known awards whose histories may be yet untold play their own role in the circulation of cultural value through the consecration of literary value The study of the Society s Book of the Year and First Book of the Year Awards not only highlights how important connections between literary awards and national culture and identity are within prize culture and how literary awards and their founding institutions can be products of the socio political and cultural milieu in which they form but this study also illustrates how existing literary award scholarship has only begun to scratch the surface of the complexities of the phenomenon This book promotes a new approach to considering literary prizes proposing that the concept of the literary awards hierarchy can contribute to emerging and developing discourses pertaining to literary and indeed cultural prizes more broadly How to Be a Friend to a Friend Who's Sick Letty Cottin Pogrebin,2013-04-09 Everyone knows someone who s sick or suffering Yet when a friend or relative is under duress many of us feel uncertain about how to cope Throughout her recent bout with breast cancer Letty Cottin Pogrebin became fascinated by her friends and family s diverse reactions to her and her illness how awkwardly some of them behaved how some misspoke or misinterpreted her needs and how wonderful it was when people read her right She began talking to her fellow patients and dozens of other veterans of serious illness seeking to discover what sick people wished their friends knew about how best to comfort help and even simply talk to them Now Pogrebin has distilled their collective stories and opinions into this wide ranging compendium of pragmatic guidance and usable wisdom Her advice is always infused with sensitivity warmth and humor It is embedded in candid stories from her own and others journeys and their sometimes imperfect interactions with well meaning friends How to Be a Friend to a Friend Who s Sick is an invaluable guidebook for anyone hoping to rise to the challenges of this most important and demanding passage of friendship How to Be Good with Words Don LePan, Laura Buzzard, Maureen Okun, 2017-02-25 In recent decades the contested areas of English usage have grown both larger and more numerous English speakers argue about whether we should say man or humanity fisher or fisherman whether we ought to speak of people as being disabled or challenged or differently abled whether it is acceptable to say that s so gay More generally we ask can we use language in ways that avoid giving expression to prejudices embedded within it Can the words we use help us point a way towards a better world Can we ask such questions with appropriate seriousness while remaining open minded and while retaining our sense of humor To all these questions this concise and user friendly guide answers yes while offering clear headed discussions of many of the key issues

Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber, Alice Bell, 2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies
