Everyone in Wheeler, New Mexico, thinks Joanna leads the perfect life: the quiet, contented housewife of a dashing deputy sheriff, raising a beautiful young daughter, Laurel. But Joanna's reality is nothing like her facade. Behind closed doors, she lives in constant fear of her husband. She's been trapped for so long, escape seems impossible, until a stranger offers her the help she needs to flee. On the run, Joanna and Laurel stumble upon the small town of Morro, a charming and magical village that seems to exist out of time and place. There, a farmer and his wife offer her sanctuary, and soon, between the comfort of her new home and blossoming friendships, Joanna's soul begins to heal.

trembled in fear her heart racing as she looked around the windowless room She sat against the headboard of the bed staring at the scarring and damage of the wood of the four bedposts indicating that women before her had been shackled against their will She glanced fearfully at the guard who sat across the room from her watching her without sympathy How could her life have changed in a flash of a few seconds Just a year before she had joined her family on the island which had seemed to promise peace and tranquility It had been anything but for her as she battled her mother's intolerance and abuse of her and what seemed like constant scheming against her by her arch enemy she'd known since childhood. And now just as life was beginning to fulfill the promise of peace she was facing terror instead. Kat heard the door to her room open and her eyes widened as he walked in smiling and greeting her with those black soulless eyes that were devoid of humanity. Kito came to her mind instantly. She knew now why she was there. Revenge on Kito Robinson. As Kito's enemy drew near to her, Kat wondered if she had any hope at all. Would Kito be able to use his vast resources to find her on time? Or was she doomed as the other missing islanders had been? Cage the Hummingbird tells the story of Kat Jordan, a quirky impulsive art prodigy, brain injury survivor who limps her way into the life of Kito Robinson. Kito's atheistic world will be rocked by Kat's outlandish humor, antics, and devotion to her faith. It is a tale of overcoming obstacles of cultural differences, beliefs, and severe suffering and trauma through the incredible power of having a relationship and identity in Jesus Christ.

The Pale Flesh of Wood

Elizabeth A. Tucker, 2025-07-30

For fans of Celeste Ng and Dani Shapiro, this lyrical debut set in twentieth-century Northern California offers a multigenerational braided narrative examining the rippling effects of trauma and perceived fault after a loved one's suicide. 1953 WWII veteran Charles Hawkins sweet-talks his daughter Lyla into climbing the family's oak tree and hanging the rope for their tire swing. Eager Lyla crawls along the branch and ties off a bowline following her father's careful instructions, becoming elated when he playfully tests the rope and declares the knot to be strong enough to hold the weight of a grown man. Easy. But when her father walks out back one November night and hangs himself from the rope, Lyla becomes haunted by the belief that his death is her fault, a torment amplified by her grief-stricken mother who sneaks up to the attic and finds comfort in the arms of her dead husband's sweaters and a formidable grandmother who seemingly punishes Lyla by locking her outside, leaving her to stare down the enormous tree rooted at the epicenter of her family's loss. Set among the fault-prone landscape of Northern California, The Pale Flesh of Wood is told by three generations of the Hawkins family. Each narrative explores the effects of trauma after the ground shifts beneath their feet and how they must come to terms with their own sense of guilt in order to forgive and carry on.
