Mobile Aviation Billy J. Singleton,2011-02 Local businessman and inventor John Ellis Fowler introduced the concept of the flying machine to Mobile and South Alabama Fowler s innovative designs mark the beginning of the remarkable aviation heritage of Alabama s port city a legacy further enhanced by the evolution of military and civilian aviation on Alabama s Gulf Coast A mild climate and abundance of flat terrain made the region attractive for the establishment of military flight training programs during the World War II while the availability of air rail and sea transportation made Mobile an ideal location for construction of a supply and repair depot to support military aviation in the Southeast Images of Aviation Mobile Aviation is the story of the first century of powered flight in Mobile and South Alabama Project Independence Blueprint United States. Federal Energy Administration, 1974 What is Project Independence The sources and uses of energy in the United States have changed dramatically in the last several decades As a result in just one generation we have shifted from a position of domestic energy abundance to a substantial and continually growing reliance on foreign energy sources Project Independence is a wide ranging program to evaluate this growing dependence on foreign sources of energy and to develop positive programs to reduce our vulnerability to future oil cut offs and price increases
