Islamic Veiling In Legal Discourse:

Islamic Veiling in Legal Discourse Anastasia Vakulenko, 2012-09-10 Islamic Veiling in Legal Discourse looks at relevant law and surrounding discourses in order to examine the assumptions and limits of the debates around the issue of Islamic veiling that has become so topical in recent years For some Islamic veiling indicates a lack of autonomy the oppression of women and the threat of Islamic radicalism to western secular values For others it suggests a positive autonomous choice a new kind of gender equality and a legitimate exercise of one's freedom of religion a treasured right in democratic societies This book finds that across seemingly diverse legal and political traditions a set of discursive frameworks the preoccupation with autonomy and choice the imperative of gender equality and a particular western understanding of religion and religious subjectivity shape the positions of both proponents and opponents of various restrictions on Islamic veiling Rather than take a position on one or the other side of the debate the book focuses on the frameworks themselves highlighting their limitations

Law and Justice Review-22 Türkiye Adalet Akademisi, Law and Justice Review 22 Islam and Postcolonial Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso, James McClung, 2017-01-27 Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion's role in shaping postcolonial identity Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey Gokhan Bacik, 2021-07-29 Nineteenth century Istanbul was an intellectual hub of rich discussions about Islam in which leading reformists had a significant role Turkey today appears to be an intellectual vacuum to anyone searching for ongoing critical engagement with Islam The main purpose of this book is to adjust this view of Turkey by showcasing the modern Turkish theologians who challenge mainstream Sunni interpretations of Islam Labelling these theologians as rationalist rather than reformist the author reveals that their theology is inherently anti establishment and thus a religiously oriented challenge to the hegemony of the state sanctioned Islam for the rationalists Turkey's problems have their origins in the Sunni interpretation of Islam Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey analyses nine prominent scholars of Islam who provide a religious opposition to the Sunni revival in Turkey H. Seyin Atay, Yasar Nuri Z. Erkmen, M. Hayri Kirbasoglu, İlhami G. İler, R. İhsan Elia, İ. K. Merzsoy, Mustafa Z. Erkmen, İ. İ. Balci and Mehmet Azimli These scholars' writings are almost exclusively published in Turkish so this book makes their ideas available in English for the first time It also examines the scope, methodology and argumentation of the scholars' theology

categorizing their theological interpretations from historicist to universalist and from empiricist to rationalist In identifying a new rationalist school of Turkish theology and outlining its different manifestations the book breaks new ground It fills a significant gap in the literature on Islamic studies and reveals an understudied dimension of Turkey and Turkish Islam beyond the well known ideas of the AKP and the Gulenists Wearing the Niqab Anna Piela,2021-01-14 Bringing niqab wearers voices to the fore discussing their narratives on religious agency identity social interaction community and urban spaces Anna Piela situates women s accounts firmly within UK and US socio political contexts as well as within media discourses on Islam The niqab has recently emerged as one of the most ubiquitous symbols of everything that is perceived to be wrong with Islam barbarity backwardness exploitation of women and political radicalization Yet all these notions are assigned to women who wear the niqab without their consultation niqab debates are held without their voices being heard and when they do speak their views are dismissed However the picture painted by the stories told here demonstrates that for these women religious symbols such as the niqab are deeply personal freely chosen multilayered and socially situated Wearing the Niqab gives voice to these women and their stories and sets the record straight enhancing understanding of the complex picture around niqab and religious identity and agency Feminist Trouble Éléonore Lépinard,2020 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license It is free to read at Oxford

Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Feminism is in trouble For more than two decades Islamic veils niqabs and burkinis forced and arranged marriages polygamy and Sharia rules concerning women have been the object of intense public scrutiny and legal regulations in many Western countries especially in Europe and feminists have been actively engaged on both sides of the debates In Feminist Trouble Éléonore Lépinard draws on extended fieldwork with numerous women s organizations in France and Quebec Giving voice to women of color and white women Lépinard dissects hierarchies of privilege in particular whiteness in feminist politics grappling with Islam and Islamic veiling debates to understand how these changes have transformed contemporary feminist movements intersectional politics and the feminist collective subject A critical look at feminism its divisions and its future Feminist Trouble argues that feminism should not be centered around an identity women but should instead focus on a feminist ethic of responsibility which reckons with power asymmetries and requires women to prioritize their ethical responsibility to the feminist project

Canada's Surprising Constitution Howard Kislowicz,Richard J. Moon,Kerri Anne Froc,2024-05-01 Constitutions are meant to endure providing both stability and adaptability Their public legitimacy depends on the ability of the courts and other interpreters to get this balance right Why then has Canada s constitution only four decades old produced so many surprises Canada s Surprising Constitution investigates unexpected interpretations of the Constitution Act 1982 by the courts In this illuminating collection of essays leading scholars reflect on these surprising interpretations focusing on fundamental freedoms equality Aboriginal and language rights structural features of the Charter as well as the courts approach to the interpretation of the Constitution The public legitimacy of the Constitution requires that it be seen as both relevant as circumstances change but also true to the values it embodies The responsibility for getting this balance right lies not only with judges but also with legislatures executives scholars advocates and public interest organizations The thoughtful work of this volume is crucial in identifying accounting for and looking ahead anticipating potential surprises Its thorough analysis also offers a view of the Constitution in action

The Islamic Veil Elizabeth M. Bucar,2012-09-01 Banned in public institutions in France and Turkey mandatory in Saudi Arabia and Iran no other item of clothing incites such furious reactions The Islamic veil a catch all term that encompasses everything from a simple headscarf to the all covering burqa has over the past decade become a heated battleground for debates on everything from women s rights to multiculturalism Elizabeth Bucar goes beyond the simplistic question of whether the veil is good or bad to ask instead why it has become so politically symbolic Cutting through the condescension and fear that typify the debate she reveals the huge diversity of women s experiences of veiling Her illuminating global perspective takes in everything from the new veiling movement among the Egyptian middle class to hijab fashion in Indonesia It will be invaluable to anyone looking to understand the veil beyond its status as shorthand for Islamic fundamentalism and female oppression The Experiences of Face Veil Wearers in Europe and the Law Eva Brems,2014-09-11 One of the most remarkable aspects pertaining to the legal bans and societal debates on the face veil in Europe is that they rely on assumptions which lack any factual basis To rectify this Eva Brems researched the experiences of women who wear a face veil in Belgium and brought her research results together with those of colleagues who did the same in four other European countries Their findings which are outlined in this volume move the current discussion on face veil bans forward by providing a much needed insider perspective In addition a number of legal and social science scholars comment on the empirical findings and on the face veil issue more generally LES RÉSIDUS DU VIDE Heloise Maillet,2018-01-01 Catalogue on the work of Ben Jack Nash and exhibition Les R sidus du vide 2018 Featuring essays from art critics archaeologists and political scientist Pippa Norris Text in English and French Un-Veiling Dichotomies Giorgia Baldi,2021-09-27 This book analyzes the implication of secular liberal values in Western and human rights law and its impact on Muslim women It offers an innovative reading of the tension between the religious and secular spheres The author does not view the two as binary opposites Rather she believes they are twin categories that define specific forms of lives as well as a specific notion of womanhood This divergence from the usual dichotomy opens the doors for a reinterpretation of secularism in contemporary Europe This method also helps readers to view the study of religion vs secularism in a new light It allows for a better understanding of the challenges that contemporary Europe now faces regarding the accommodation of different religious identities For instance one entire section of the book concerns the practice of veiling and explores the contentious headscarf debate It features case studies from Germany France and the UK In addition the analysis combines a wide range of disciplines and employs an integrated comparative and inter disciplinary approach The author successfully brings together arguments from different fields with a comparative legal and political analysis of Western and Islamic law and politics This innovative study appeals to students and researchers while offering an important contribution to the debate over the role of religion in contemporary secular Europe and its impact on women s rights and gender equality Beyond the Binary Saadia Yacoob,2024-05-07 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more One of the most hotly debated issues in contemporary Muslim ethics is the status of women in Islamic law Whereas Muslim conservatives argue that gender differentiated legal rulings reflect complementary gender roles Muslim feminists argue that Islamic law has subordinated women and is thus in need of reform The shared assumption on both sides however is that gender fundamentally shapes an individual's legal status Beyond the Binary explores an expansive cross section of topics in ninth to twelfth century Hanafi legal thought ranging from sexual crimes to consent to marriage to show that early Muslim jurists imagined a world built not on a binary distinction between male and female but on multiple intersecting hierarchies of gender age enslavement lineage class and other social roles Saadia Yacoob offers a restorative reading of Islamic law arguing that its intersectional and relational understanding of legal personhood offers a productive space for Muslim feminists to move beyond critique and instead think with and through the Islamic legal tradition
