Education and Gendered Citizenship in Pakistan M. Naseem,2010-12-14 This book challenges the uncritical use of the long held dictum of the development discourse that education empowers women Situated in the post structuralist feminist position it argues that in its current state the educational discourse in Pakistan actually disempowers women

The Technopolitics of Communication in Modern India Pragya Dhital,2024-12-12 This book offers a groundbreaking account of the role of media technologies in Indian nationalism and democracy From the Brexit referendum in 2016 to the phenomenon of Trumpism there has been much speculation about the role played by new media in an apparent return of illiberal politics and primordial identities Dhital argues these developments could best be understood by not taking identity for granted as a static and exclusive form of affiliation She also emphasises how the technical and material are interwoven into human thought and action rather than acting upon them externally She accordingly focuses on the technopolitical means by which groups have been ventriloquised during critical periods in Indian political history across various media from newspapers and magazines to radio broadcasts speeches and online platforms Chapters cover prison writing produced during the emergency of 1975 77 regulation of public speech during the 2014 general election and the Citizenship Amendment Act protests of 2019 20 Through these case studies Dhital works towards an alternative more reflexive basis for popular representation one that does not sacralise the people and assume power in their name Gender, Sexuality and

Feminism in Pakistani Urdu Writing Amina Yaqin,2022-03-08 In this book the author critically interrogates the construction of gender community and nation in the work of progressive women poets The book combines the study of nation and community through a close engagement with Urdu literary culture in the twentieth century and particularly the work of pioneering literary women It argues that gender and sexuality become fixed signifiers in the trauma of partition and the formation of the post partition Islamic nation The story of literary women in Pakistan taking up the mantle of public poets thus has to be understood in relation to the history of reform anti colonial resistance and a transnational Islamicate culture The book examines the presence of feminist thought in the work of progressive women poets charting their interrogation of the clash between secular and sacred values and the increasing split between liberal and Islamic nationalism The book suggests that through their writing and experiences women have negotiated sacred and secular spaces to move beyond a community that is subservient to nationalist ideology Forms of Knowledge in Early Modern Asia Sheldon
