The Christian Educator's Handbook on Adult Education Kenneth O. Gangel, James C. Wilhoit, 1998-02-01 Get historical insight and practical help for your adult Christian education needs The Coaching Process Lynn Kidman, Stephanie J. Hanrahan, 2010-12-16 In this fresh and engaging introduction to sports coaching Lynn Kidman and Stephanie Hanrahan guide students through the coaching process Focusing on the practical aspects of sports coaching the book helps students to develop their basic technical skills as well as strategies for working with individual and team athletes and to plan and implement effective coaching sessions. The book develops an athlete centred approach to sports coaching by which athletes take ownership of their learning in turn strengthening their abilities to retain key skills and to make effective decisions during competition Useful pedagogical features in each chapter such as real life case studies activities self reflection questions and summaries of current research and best practice encourage reflective practice and help student coaches to develop and extend their coaching techniques and philosophies The Coaching Process is invaluable reading for any student starting a sports coaching course at college or university and for any coach working with athletes or children in sport who wants to improve their practical skills Faith-Based Education That Constructs HeeKap Lee, 2010-08-09 Constructivism is everywhere It is a hot issue at this time in the field of philosophy education technology and religion However can constructivism be an alternative approach in faith based education While some conclude that Jesus knew learning was an active knowledge creating process and that he always encouraged his disciples to think deeply and go beyond the surface level others would find that constructivism undercuts faith based education because of its claims to relativity For example constructivists claim that meaning is imposed on the world by us rather than existing in the world independently from us Thus they proclaim that truth is relative to particular times places and people Christians hold that truth does exist absolutely So how can there be a way forward for faith based educators who see the good in the constructivist approach In Faith Based Education that Constructs readers will find a unique approach whereby constructivism may appropriately be applied to a faith based education setting Although disagreement can occur between constructivism and faith based education this book concludes that constructivist thought and Christian faith based education are in the end congruent and harmonious in significant ways Those faith based educators who continue to hold cautionary views of radical constructivist assertions against absolute truths need not disregard all other aspects of constructivism
