Avoid plagiarism and build credibility for your work by documenting your sources on a Works Cited page. Your sources (books, articles, web pages, pictures, etc.) should be listed alphabetically (disregard A, An or The). Be sure to double space your entries and use a hanging indent format (meaning: if the source takes up more than one line, indent additional lines five spaces).

Example:

lessons guide students through the writing process providing instruction on grammar and conventions and highlighting collaboration and reflection as key elements of effective writing. Students' final essays are assessed using a checklist developed by the class over the course of the unit. The organization and distinctive content of the model and source texts in each unit afford teachers the flexibility to implement each unit independently of the others and at any point during the curriculum. For example, a unit may be implemented to assess students' writing prior to implementation of the standard curriculum to scaffold writing instruction leading into a writing assessment or to support struggling writers by addressing gaps in skills as demonstrated in previous assessments. The Paths Writing Units provide teachers with invaluable opportunities to engage students as active participants in their own learning at every stage of the writing process and to customize instruction to meet the varying needs of all students.
