Schiwy,1996-05-27 As writers such as Virginia Woolf Audre Lorde and Anais Nin recognized keeping a journal is a powerful tool of creative expression and self healing In A Voice of Her Own a companion for both new and longtime diarists Marlene Schiwy shows that journal writing is the ideal way to find one s individual voice an opportunity for women to explore feelings intuitions perceptions and ideas often suppressed in our society and to record the truths of their own experience Schiwy invites readers to share the journeys other women have made toward selfhood and encourages them to begin a journey of their own She weaves together passages from published and unpublished journals from works of literature psychology and women s studies with her personal insights A Voice of Her Own is a treasure chest of inspiration for every woman seeking deeper self awareness and new outlets for creativity Once a Week Eneas Sweetland Dallas,1859 The Letters of

When she discovered that Jim Morrison of The Doors read The History of Magic by Kurt Seligmann she bought it. Though she's not a reader she liked the illustrations and incorporated some of the characteristics of Hermetic Conversation in her cover since the other picture which inspired her from a 1960's Good Housekeeping magazine also had two people talking. In reference to her book the twelve keys can be referred to the 12 months of the year since she includes dates when she's writing. They can also be referred to the different journals she writes in that are being held like cards. The position of the stars were like the luck of the draw relating to agriculture back then which is why I put the cheddar man wizard on the basil card which looks like Stonehenge for the cover. He also appears to be a flask used in alchemy to create the philosopher's tincture.

The Harold Nicolson Diaries Harold Nicolson, 2024-08-29

One of the great 20th century political diaries. Brilliant riveting stuff. TRIBUNE One stops to marvel at the achievement. Honesty, decency, modesty, magnanimity are stamped on every page as evident as the wit. EVENING STANDARD A tremendous read. SPECTATOR Harold Nicolson was one of the three great political diarists of the 20th century along with Chips Channon and Alan Clark. Nicolson was an MP Conservative 1935-45 who also flirted with Labour after WWII. He had previously been in the Foreign Office and attended the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 and material from this period is included in this new edition for the first time. Nicolson never achieved high office but rarely a day went by when he didn't record what was going on at Westminster. He socialised widely, was married to the poet and author Vita Sackville West and together they created the famous garden at Sissinghurst. Both were bisexuals and had affairs outside their marriage. This new edition also draws on diary entries and letters previously considered too sensitive for inclusion. The diversity of Harold Nicolson's interests and the irony in his writing make his diary a highly entertaining record of his life and times as well as a document of great historical value.
