Laine, 2015-01-03 Whereas many textbooks treat the subject of world religions in an apolitical way as if each religion were a path for individuals seeking wisdom and not a discourse intimately connected with the exercise of power James W Laine treats religion and politics as halves of the same whole tracing their relationship from the policies of

Alexander the Great to the ideologies of modern Europe secularists with stops in classical India China and the Islamic world Meta Religion is a groundbreaking text that brings power and politics to the fore of our understanding of world religions placing religion at the center of world history This synthetic approach is both transformative and enlightening as it presents a powerful model for thinking differently about what religion is and how it functions in the world With images and maps to bring the narrative to life Meta Religion combines sophisticated scholarly critique with accessibility that students and scholar alike will appreciate

Scapegoating Islam Jeffrey L. Thomas, 2015-09-15 Exploring the experience of Muslims in America following 9 11 this book assesses how anti Muslim bias within the U S government and the larger society undermines American security and democracy In the aftermath of the events of September 11 2001 Muslims in America have experienced discrimination and intolerance from the U S government and American citizens alike From religious and ethnic profiling to hate crimes intolerance against Muslims is being reinforced on multiple levels undercutting the Muslim community's engagement in American society. This text is essential for understanding how the unjust treatment of American Muslims following September 11 has only served to alienate the Muslim community and further divide the United States. Authored by an expert analyst of policy for 20 years, this book explores the prejudice against Muslims and how the actions of the U.S. government continue to perpetuate fear and stereotypes within U.S. citizens. The author posits that by respecting the civil rights of Muslims, the government will lead by example in the acceptance of American Muslims, improving homeland security along with the lives of Muslims living in the United States.

Comparative Law and Anthropology James A.R. Nafziger, 2017-12-29 The topical chapters in this cutting-edge collection at the intersection of comparative law and anthropology explore the mutually enriching insights and outlooks of the two fields. Comparative Law and Anthropology adopts a foundational approach to social and cultural issues and their resolution rather than relying on unified paradigms of research or unified objects of study. Taken together, the contributions extend long-developing trends from legal anthropology to an anthropology of law and from externally imposed to internally generated interpretations of norms and processes of legal significance within particular cultures. The book's expansive conceptualization of comparative law encompasses not only its traditional geographical orientation but also historical and jurisprudential dimensions It is also noteworthy in blending the expertise of long established acclaimed scholars with new voices from a range of disciplines and backgrounds New Approaches to Islam in Film Kristian Petersen,2021-04-26 Many global film industries fail in expanding the role of Muslims on screen Too often they produce a dichotomy between good and bad Muslims limiting the narrative domain to issues of national security war and terrorism Naturally much of the previous scholarship on Muslims in film focused on stereotypes and the politics of representation This collection of essays from an international panel of contributors significantly expands the boundaries of discussion around Muslims in film asking new questions of the archive and magnifying analyses of particular cultural productions The volume includes the exploration of regional cinemas detailed analysis of auteurs and individual films comparison across global cinema and new explorations that have not yet entered the conversation The interdisciplinary collection provides an examination of the multiple roles Islam plays in film and the various ways Muslims are depicted Across the chapters key intersecting themes arise that push the limits of how we currently approach issues of Muslims in cinema and ventures to lead us in new directions for future scholarship This book adds new depth to the matrix of previous scholarship by revisiting methodological structures and sources as well as exploring new visual geographies transnational circuits and approaches It reframes the presiding scholarly conventions in five novel trajectories considering new sources exploring new communities probing new perspectives charting new theoretical directions and offering new ways of understanding conflict in cinema As such it will be of great use to scholars working in Islamic Studies Film Studies Religious Studies and Media The World Almanac of Islamism 2019 American Foreign Policy Council,2019-04-30 Now in its fourth edition The World Almanac of Islamism is the first comprehensive reference work to detail the current activities of radical Islamist movements worldwide The contributions written by subject expert provide up to date assessments on the contemporary Islamist threat in all countries and regions where it exists Each country study will include valuable metrics for gauging the advance or decline of Islamism In places where Islamists are not in power these include year on year comparisons of the number of terrorist attacks that have taken place the level of popular support being received by radical religious organizations and political parties and applicable government responses to these trends if any In places where they are in power metrics encompass relevant changes to domestic human rights practices and social conditions foreign policy rhetoric and action and the overall stability of the state The Soft Power of the Korean Wave Youna Kim,2021-09-05 At this fascinating historical moment this timely collection explores the new meaning of the Korean Wave and the process of media production representation distribution and consumption in a global context as a distinctive and complex form of soft power Focusing on the most recent phenomenon of Korean popular culture this book considers the Korean Wave in the global digital age and addresses the social cultural and political implications in their complexity within the contexts of global inequalities and uneven power structures The collection

Faith, Hope and Love Ray Gaston, 2017-09-29 Often Christian interfaith engagement has been viewed through the lens of theology of religions where the primary questions are often about the salvific destiny of people of other faiths Faith Hope and Love offers an alternative approach asking how do Christian interfaith practitioners live out their discipleship in a multi faith world And what theologically is being expressed in their activity Demonstrating a new and innovative approach to interfaith engagement this book argues for theological reflection on the multi faith reality of our society to focus on the practice of Christian interfaith engagement drawing on the methodology of practical theology to explore the impact of encounter on Christian self understanding It suggests that other faith traditions are no longer a theological problem to be solved or people to be saved but a potential means of grace in which the Christian disciple learns more about God and grows in their relationship with Christ Part 1 Towards a Practical Theology of Interfaith Engagement 1 Faith Hope and Love Pedagogy for Interfaith Engagement 2 Beyond New Contestations A Practical Theological Challenge to Particularists and Pluralists 3 Interfaith Engagement Non Violence and the Way of Salvation Part 2 Challenging Islamophobia Affirming Multiculturalism 4 Challenging Islamophobia A Practical Theological Reflection 5 Rejoicing in the Truth A Practical Theological Affirmation of Multiculturalism
