Eating in Israel Claudia Prieto Piastro, 2021-12-14. This book explores the relationship between the food culture of Israel and the creation of its national identity. It is an effort to research what the mundane everyday behaviours such as cooking and feeding ourselves and others can tell us about the places we were born and the cultural practices of a nation. With the aim of developing a better understanding of the many facets of Israeli nationalism, this ethnographic work interrogates how ordinary Israelis, in particular women, use food in their everyday life to construct, perform, and resist national narratives. It explores how Israeli national identity is experienced through its food culture and how social and political transformations are reflected in the consumption patterns of Israeli society. The book highlights understudied themes in anthropology, food studies, and gender studies and focuses on three key themes: food and national identity construction the role of women as feeders of the nation and everyday nationhood It is a relevant work for researchers and students interested in the study of food gender nationalism and the Middle East as well as for food writers and bloggers alike Slow Food Carlo Petrini, Ben Watson, Slow Food Editore, 2001-10-01 Remember the days before the dot com explosion before Golden Arches rose from the Great Plains before the Age of Information when the only commodity that wasn't in short supply in America was time Time to relax and reflect time to cook well eat well and live the life of sustainable hedonism Today we pound down our Big Mac and fries as we check our e mail on our collective Palm Pilots at the expense of true nourishment for our bodies and souls Enough says Carlo Petrini the founder of Slow Food International a movement that encourages us to turn down the volume unplug the answering machine and enjoy life to its fullest Away with nutraceutical soft drinks and breakfast cereals made from refined sugar and shaped like clowns Bring back the pleasure of the palate and return the humanity to food More than 60 000 members worldwide now belong to the Slow Food movement which believes that the slow shall inherit the earth Slow Food Collected Thoughts on Taste Tradition and the Honest Pleasures of Food is an anthology for cooks gourmets and anyone who is passionate about food and its impact on our culture Drawn from five years of the quarterly journal Slow only recently available in America this book includes more than 100 articles covering eclectic topics from Falafel to Fat City From the market at Ulan Bator in Mongolia to Slow Food Down Under this book offers an armchair tour of the exotic and bizarre You'll pass through Vietnam's Snake Tavern enjoy the Post Industrial Pint of Beer and learn why the lascivious villain in Indian cinema always eats Tandoori Chicken The articles are contributed by some of the world's top food writers Slow Food is moving fast in North America with more than 5 000 members loosely organized into 55 Convivia from Montreal to San Francisco benefiting from enormous free publicity Slow Food offers a clear alternative to the fast food nation the title of Eric Schlosser's great book on the horrors of the fast food biz This is a perfect follow up to Joan Dye Gussow's This Organic Life and is proof positive that he or she who lives slow lives best 100 Jewish Things to Do Before You Die Barbara Sheklin Davis, 2017-01-01 The demands of modern society often create distance between Jews and their cultural heritage Author Barbara Sheklin Davis a New York City native and longtime Jewish educator offers ways to embrace and uphold Jewish influences in everyday life Suggestions range from simple activities like indulging in a Woody Allen movie marathon and noshing on pastrami on rye to more involved activities including hosting a Shabbat dinner or exploring tikkun olam to bring about social justice and repair the world Feeling more Jewish than Jewish these days Let this list of 100 tips reconnect you Start now with 12 and call your mother after all she worries Sample Contents Binge watch Woody Allen Face the future Guess how many of these people are Jewish Join a Jewish dating site Make an impact on social justice Unravel a Jewish superstition A Jewish educator for well over 50 years Barbara Sheklin Davis has devoted her life to teaching and upholding Jewish traditions in the United States She earned her PhD in Spanish literature from Columbia University and serves as executive editor of HaYidion a journal of Jewish education An accomplished author noted scholar
