This book includes listings by composer and title as well as indexes of authors, titles, and first lines of text for music from antiquity through the early twenty-first century.

SCM Studyguide: Church History Stephen Spencer, 2013-08-27. An introduction to the study of the ways the church has evolved in its corporate life since its birth in the first century. Special attention is given to studying its changing relationship and interaction with the surrounding societies in which it has existed. The intended readership will be those training for ministry in English-speaking churches, so the studyguide will concentrate on those aspects of this subject of most relevance to this group. This means there will be greater attention to developments in the West than in the East, especially in later centuries, and to topics such as the nature of ministry, the sacraments, places of worship, authority in the church, and mission. These will be examined at each period of church history in each chapter to provide reference points of comparison throughout the book. Each chapter will also contain a specific case study presenting extracts of some key documents with notes, commentary, and questions for discussion to allow readers to develop skills in historical research. General discussion questions and reading lists will be provided at the end of each chapter. The final chapter will provide guidance for the study of the history of the student's own church and community. Resources in education, 1984-04. International Review of Biblical Studies, Volume 48 (2001-2002) Bernhard Lang, 2021-10-11. Formerly known by its subtitle Internationale Zeitschriftenschau für Bibelwissenschaft und Grenzgebiete, the International Review of Biblical Studies has served the scholarly community ever since its inception in the early 1950s. Each annual volume includes approximately 2 000 abstracts and summaries of articles and books that deal with the Bible and related literature, including the Dead Sea Scrolls, Pseudepigrapha, non-canonical gospels, and ancient Near Eastern writings. The abstracts, which may be in English, German, or French, are arranged thematically under headings such as e.g. Genesis, Matthew, Greek language, text and textual criticism, exegetical methods and approaches, biblical theology, social and religious institutions, biblical personalities, history of Israel, and early Judaism, and so on. The articles and books that are abstracted and reviewed are collected annually by an international team of collaborators from over 300 of the most important periodicals and book series in the fields covered.
