

The background is a dark blue gradient. On the left side, there is a large, semi-circular technical diagram resembling a circular scale or a part of a larger mechanism. It features concentric circles, radial lines, and a scale with numerical markings from 0 to 360 in increments of 10. Several curved arrows indicate rotational movement. In the upper right, there is another smaller circular diagram with concentric circles and a single curved arrow. The overall aesthetic is technical and precise.
