Teaching First Grade Min Hong, 2001-07 A mentor teacher shares insights strategies and lessons for teaching reading writing and math and laying the foundation for learning success Closing the Literacy Gap Thomas G. Gunning, 2022-07-12 Packed with practical tools this book provides educators with a research based framework for accelerating the reading and writing growth of underperforming students Strategies and resources are included for building foundational skills comprehension and vocabulary engaging students with independent reading and periodicals developing writing and implementing tutoring and other extra supports The book gives special attention to helping those most affected by the literacy gap It describes dozens of high quality intervention programs assessments activities and materials many of which can be accessed for free at the companion website and includes reproducible downloadable forms On the Road to Saying Bye to Autism Lakisha Marie Mackie, 2018-08-27 I told autism in my family these vitamins and juice and muffins will help my son s brain get on the right channel it is supposed to be on I told autism that you will not win in my family I told autism that my son will make it He will graduate high school and go to college I told autism in my family my son will play sports he will talk he will be on the same level as his peers I told autism in my family I said Bye Felicia Kindergarten Readiness for All Melissa Stormont, Daniel R. Cohen, 2021-08-06 This book provides a framework for all kindergarten teachers to use to support young children in their transition to kindergarten It offers an overview of the importance of this transition for young children and shows how their success can be supported through the use of specific supports The topics covered here include the various ways to involve children and their families use assessment information and use a collection of strategies for children based on their needs The book is comprehensive in covering a multitude of needs children and their families may have from basic support needs to creative and tailored ways to involve families and to using specific social skills templates to teach and support social skills for young children The final chapter of the book also addresses the need to determine children who need more focused supports and provides concrete strategies to use for children with more intensive needs Normal Instructor and Teachers World , 1909 Feminist Posthumanisms, New Materialisms and Education Jessica Ringrose, Katie Warfield, Shiva Zarabadi, 2020-04-28 This edited collection is a careful assemblage of papers that have contributed to the maturing field within education studies that works with the feminist implications of the theories and methodologies of posthumanism and new materialism what we have also called elsewhere PhEmaterialism The generative questions for this collection are what if we locate education in doing and becoming rather than being And how does associating education with matter multiplicity and relationality change how we think about agency ontology and epistemology This collection foregrounds cutting edge educational research that works to trouble the binaries between theory and methodology It demonstrates new forms of feminist ethics and response ability in research practices and offers some coherence to this new area of research This volume will provide a vital reference text for educational researchers and scholars interested in this burgeoning area of theoretically informed methodology and methodologically informed theory The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in Taylor Francis journals Ladies' Home Companion ,1909

Resources in Education ,1993 The Family Firm Emily Oster,2022-08-02 The instant New York Times bestseller A Behavioral Scientist Notable Book of 2021 Emily Oster dives into the data on parenting issues cuts through the clutter and gives families the bottom line to help them make better decisions Good Morning America From the bestselling author of Expecting Better and Cribsheet the next step in data driven parenting from economist Emily Oster In The Family Firm Brown professor of economics and mom of two Emily Oster offers a classic business school framework for data driven parents to think more deliberately about the key issues of the elementary years school health extracurricular activities and more Unlike the hourly challenges of infant parenting the big questions in this age come up less frequently But we live with the consequences of our decisions for much longer What s the right kind of school and at what age should a particular kid start How do you encourage a healthy diet Should kids play a sport and how seriously How do you think smartly about encouraging children s independence Along with these bigger questions Oster investigates how to navigate the complexity of day to day family logistics Making these decisions is less about finding the specific answer and more about taking the right approach Parents of this age are often still working in baby mode which is to say under stress and on the fly That is a classic management problem and Oster takes a page from her time as a business school professor at the University of Chicago to show us that thoughtful business process can help smooth out tough family decisions The Family Firm is a smart and winning guide to how to think clearly and with less ambient stress about the key decisions of the elementary school years Parenting is a full time job It s time we start treating it like one Complexity Theory and Educational Leadership in Schools

Patrick McQuillan,Laura Schall-Leckrone,Brad Kershner,Anna Noble Dunphy,Ksenia Filatov,2025-02-20 The research in this volume draws on aspects of complexity theory and its integral link to systems performance to propose a new method for combatting the longstanding opportunity gap and related underperformance of so many underserved students in the American educational system Through a longitudinal case study of the Lynch Leadership Academy at Boston College this research considers the initial conditions and related disequilibrium principals experienced the degree to which principals shared power and authority within their school context and the extent to which they generated a shared school culture founded on collaboration and systematic reflection From these data the authors create a detailed picture of the Academy and its impact on the principals and their schools using a new analytic tool called the systems transformation heuristic designed by the authors to quantify the qualitative dimensions of a school s efforts to enact adaptive change consistent with the complex adaptive system metaphor As such it offers a new foundation for conceptualizing ongoing systems change as well as a fresh model for school personnel to consider their experience from concrete intertwined and unique points of view It will appeal to scholars researchers and practitioners with interests in educational leadership complexity theory urban education and social justice Normal Instructor ,1909 Town Journal ,1922 The Department of Energy's Public Information Programs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Technology. Collaborating with Parents for Early School Success Stephanie H. McConaughy,Pam Kay,Julie A. Welkowitz,Kim Hewitt,Martha D. Fitzgerald,2013-12-12 The Achieving Behaving Caring ABC Program is an evidence based approach to addressing the needs of elementary students at risk for emotional and behavioral difficulties and promoting successful home school collaboration This practical guide demonstrates how classroom teachers and parents can work together to boost individual children s strengths reduce problems that interfere with learning and provide classwide social skills training The use of trained parent liaisons is a special feature of the program Detailed step by step instructions for implementing ABC are accompanied by many useful case illustrations and tips The book includes more than two dozen reproducible handouts and forms in a convenient large size format This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series edited by Sandra M Chafouleas The Country Gentleman ,1926 Bridging Family-Teacher Relationships for ELL and Immigrant Students Onchwari, Grace,Keengwe, Jared,2020-12-05 Recent research suggests that good relationships between parents and their children s providers or teachers could lead to positive outcomes for children and families Positive mutually respectful and collaborative relationships between families and schools and education providers and teachers contribute to young children s school readiness increase positive family engagement in children s programs and strengthen home program connection a critical factor to children s school success Bridging Family Teacher Relationships for ELL and Immigrant Students is a comprehensive reference source that focuses on research based pedagogical practices for teaching young English language learners ELL and immigrants It specifically looks at strategies across the curriculum including social emotional development parent involvement language development and more While highlighting major themes that include academic engagement and achievement among ELL and immigrant children factors affecting partnerships with schools and home the impact of home environments on school readiness and student performance this book shares pedagogical practices across different subjects that use partnerships with families of ELL immigrants It is intended for classroom teachers early childhood and K 12 parents faculty school administrators academicians professionals researchers and students interested in family teacher relationships Research Anthology on Bilingual and Multilingual Education Management Association, Information Resources,2021-10-29 Given the boost in global immigration and migration as well as the emphasis on creating inclusive classrooms research is turning to the challenges that teachers face with the increasing need for bilingual and multilingual education The benefits of bilingual education are widespread allowing students to develop important cognitive skills such as critical thinking and problem solving as well as opening further career opportunities later in life However very few resources are available for the successful practice and implementation of this education into the curriculum with an even greater lack of appropriate cultural representation in the classroom. Thus, it is essential for educators to remain knowledgeable on the emerging strategies and procedures available for making bilingual and multilingual education successful. The Research Anthology on Bilingual and Multilingual Education is a comprehensive reference source on bilingual and multilingual education that offers the latest insights on education strategy and considerations on the language learners themselves. This research anthology features a diverse collection of authors offering valuable global perspectives on multilingual education. Covering topics such as gamification, learning processes, and teaching models, this anthology serves as an essential resource for professors, teachers, pre-service teachers, faculty of K-12 and higher education, government officials, policymakers, researchers, and academicians with an interest in key strategy and understanding of bilingual and multilingual education.
