these figures Pervasive is a truly global highly competitive conference A major conference such as Pervasive requires a rigorous and objective process for selecting papers This starts with the selection of a high quality TPC We were fortunate to be able to draw on the wisdom and experience of our 28 TPC members from the most prestigious universities and research labs in North America and Asia This committee was aided by the input of no less than 238 external reviewers chosen on the basis of their domain knowledge and relevance to pervasive computing The papers were selected using a double blind review with four peer reviews per paper a discussion phase among the reviewers and a discussion of the papers in the TPC meeting which was held in Palo Alto during December 12-13 2009 We thank Nokia Research Center for hosting the meeting

Passive and Active Measurement Arvind Krishnamurthy, Bernhard Plattner, 2010-04-01 The 2010 edition of the Passive and Active Measurement Conference was the 11th of a series of successful events Since 2000 the Passive and Active Measurement PAM conference has provided a forum for presenting and discussing innovative and early work in the area of Internet measurements PAM has a tradition of being a workshop like conference with lively discussion and active participation from all attendees This event focuses on research and practical applications of network measurement and analysis techniques This year's conference was held at ETH Zurich Switzerland PAM 2010 attracted 79 submissions Each paper was carefully reviewed by at least three members of the Technical Program Committee The reviewing process led to the acceptance of 23 papers

The papers were arranged in nine sessions covering the following areas routing transport protocols mobile devices topology measurement infrastructure characterizing network usage analysis techniques traffic analysis and the Web We are very grateful to Endace Ltd New Zealand Cisco Systems Inc USA Armasisuisse Switzerland and the COST Action TMA whose sponsoring allowed us to keep registration costs low and to offer several travel grants to PhD students We are also grateful to ETH Zurich for sponsoring PAM as a host
