at www.philipallan.co.uk/literatureguidesonline Debates in Geography Education Mark Jones, David Lambert, 2017-09-07
Debates in Geography Education encourages early career teachers, experienced teachers and teacher educators to engage with and reflect on key issues, concepts and debates. It aims to enable readers to reach their own informed judgements with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding. The second edition is fully updated in light of the latest research, policy and practice in the field as well as key changes to the curriculum and examination specifications. Expert contributors provide a range of perspectives on international, historical and policy contexts in order to deepen our understanding of significant debates in geography education. Key debates include geography's identity as an academic discipline, what constitutes knowledge in geography, places and regional geography, what it means to think geographically, constructing the curriculum, how we link assessment to making progress in geography, the contribution of fieldwork and outdoor experiences, technology and the use of Geographical Information Systems, school geography and employability, understanding the gap between school and university geography, evidence-based practice and research in geography education. The comprehensive, rigorous coverage of these key issues together with carefully annotated selected further reading will help support and shape further research and writing. Debates in Geography Education is a key resource that is essential reading for all teachers and researchers who wish to extend their grasp of the place of geography in education. Mark Jones is Senior Lecturer in Education at the University of the West of England, Bristol, UK. David Lambert is Professor of Geography Education at UCL Institute of Education, London, UK.

Secondary History in Action Catherine Priggs, Hugh Richards, David Hibbert, Elizabeth Carr, 2025-06-06. Drawing on over 60 years' combined experience of history teaching and history curriculum leadership, Carr, Hibbert, Priggs and Richards explore ways to make history memorable, engage students in historical thinking and secure excellent outcomes for all. Their perspective is grounded in history's disciplinary distinctiveness and a vision for its purpose in students' education. The authors of Secondary History in Action articulate practical approaches to history curriculum design, ways to teach disciplinary history in the classroom and methods to assess students' knowledge and understanding. They draw together recent research and established traditions in history teaching discourse in a coherent summary that will be helpful to trainee and beginning teachers, non-specialist teachers of history, subject leaders and senior leaders managing history departments. Britain in the Twentieth Century Ian J. Cawood, 2013-08-21. Britain in the Twentieth Century is a new approach to teaching and learning twentieth-century British history at A level. It meets the needs of teachers and students studying for today's revised AS and A2 exams. In a unique style, Britain in the Twentieth Century focuses on the key topics within the period. Each topic is then comprehensively explored to provide background, essay writing advice and examples, source work and historical skills. From 1900 to the new millennium, the key topics featured include Britain in a new century, 1900-1914, the First World War and its impact, inter-war domestic problems, British foreign policy, 1919-1939, Britain and the Second World War, social and economic change, 1945-1979. The Great University Gamble Andrew McGettigan, 2013-04-05. In 2010, the UK government imposed huge cuts and market driven reforms on higher education Proposals to raise undergraduate tuition fees lead to angry student led protests What will become of higher education under this new policy regime The Great University Gamble outlines the architecture of the new frontier for higher education surveying the financial and policy details Andrew McGettigan asks the big questions What will be the role of universities within society How will they be funded What kind of experiences will they offer students Where does the public interest lie With privatisation infringing on our universities and colleges education is threatened with transformation from a public good into a private individual financial investment
