Valencia, 2015-03-05 Students of Color and the Achievement Gap is a comprehensive landmark analysis of an incontrovertible racialized reality in U S K 12 public education the relentless achievement gap between low socioeconomic students of color and their economically advantaged White counterparts Award winning author and scholar Richard Valencia provides an authoritative and systemic treatment of the achievement gap focusing on Black and Latino Latina students He examines the societal and educational factors that help to create and maintain the achievement gap by drawing from critical race theory an asset based perspective and a systemic inequality approach By showing how racialized opportunity structures in society and schools ultimately result in racialized patterns of academic achievement in schools Valencia shows how the various indicators of the achievement gap are actually symptoms of the societal and school quality gaps Following each of these concerns Valencia provides a number of reform suggestions that can lead to systemic transformations of K 12 education Students of Color and the Achievement Gap makes a persuasive and well documented case that school success for students of color and the empowerment of their parents can only be fully understood and realized when contextualized within broader political economic and cultural frameworks

China-Taiwan Rapprochement Min-Hua Chiang, 2015-10-30 This book examines how since about 2008 the economy of Taiwan has become ever more deeply integrated into the economy of China It goes beyond a consideration of trade and investment flows and discusses also the large population flows the growing integration of the two financial systems and the nature of the deep economic integration at the industry and firm level It considers the impact of growing economic integration on society and politics assesses how China Taiwan economic integration is affecting the East Asian region more widely and explores the implications for international relations including the United States dominance in the region Overall the book presents a comprehensive analysis of all the issues

The Chinese Constitution of Central Asia N. Godehardt, 2014-03-21 China's commitments in Central Asia illustrate how regional foreign policy works and how long standing principles of Chinese foreign policy might be revised in the near future China's rise has moved Asia which is why it seems that what we have traditionally regarded as the geographic and political scope of Asia might actually considerably change in the near future Nadine Godehardt gives crucial insights into the Chinese expert discourse on Central Asia analyzing how Chinese experts define Central Asia when they talk and write about policy issues related to China's immediate Western neighbourhood In this context she gives an inside perspective on Chinese voices whose meanings are rarely examined in Chinese International Relations studies

Routledge Handbook of Caribbean Studies Patricia Noxolo, Kevon Rhiney, Ronald Cummings, 2025-04-02

The Routledge Handbook of Caribbean Studies provides a critical collection of world-class scholarship about this fascinating, diverse, and dynamic region. Bringing together new and established voices on the Anglophone, Francophone, Spanish-speaking, and Dutch-speaking Caribbean, the handbook explores the cultural and historical shapes and reach of the region, as well as the environmental, climatic, and geopolitical challenges that it faces in the 21st century. Each of its four parts—Environment, Geo-politics, History, and Culture—explores the region's conceptual and material entanglements and disentanglements, its transnational and transregional connections and disconnections, and its historical wakes and posts. The Routledge Handbook of Caribbean Studies is essential reading for all who want to know more about this much-studied but often misrepresented and misunderstood region.
