Geography Paper 1 October November 2014:

The Shadow of Kenyan Democracy Dominic Burbidge, 2016-03-09 Why has democracy failed to reduce corruption in Kenya Framing the challenge in game theoretical terms Dominic Burbidge examines how mutual expectations between citizens dictate the success or failure of political reforms Since 1992 Kenya has conducted multiparty elections with the hope of promoting accountability and transparency in government This is being undermined by ongoing corruption and an increasingly centralised state response to terrorism Providing a nuanced assessment of democracy's difficult road in Kenya Burbidge discusses the independent role being played by widespread social expectations of corruption Through tracking average views of the average person it is possible to identify a threshold beyond which society suffers mutually reinforcing negative social expectations This trend is the shadow of Kenyan democracy and must be treated as a policy challenge on its own terms before institutional reforms will be successful

Writing Home Glenn Morrison, 2017-01-30 Writing Home explores the literary representation of Australian places by those who have walked them In particular it examines how Aboriginal and settler narratives of walking have shaped portrayals of Australia's Red Centre and consequently ideas of nation and belonging Central Australia has long been characterised as a frontier the supposed divide between black and white ancient and modern But persistently representing it in this way is preventing Australians from reimagining this internationally significant region as home Writing Home argues that the frontier no longer adequately describes Central Australia and that the Aboriginal songlines make a significant but under acknowledged contribution to Australian discourses of hybridity belonging and home Drawing on anthropology cultural theory journalism politics and philosophy the book traces shifting perceptions of Australian place and space since precolonial times through six recounted walking journeys of the Red Centre

The Economics of Chocolate Mara P. Squicciarini, Johan Swinnen, 2016-01-21 This book written by global experts provides a comprehensive and topical analysis on the economics of chocolate While the main approach is economic analysis there are important contributions from other disciplines including psychology history government nutrition and geography The chapters are organized around several themes including the history of cocoa and chocolate from cocoa drinks in the Maya empire to the growing sales of Belgian chocolates in China how governments have used cocoa and chocolate as a source of tax revenue and have regulated chocolate and defined it by law to protect consumers health from fraud and industries from competition how the poor cocoa producers in developing countries are linked through trade and multinational companies with rich consumers in industrialized countries and how the rise of consumption in emerging markets China India and Africa is causing a major boom in global demand and prices and a potential shortage of the world's chocolate

Media Activism in the Digital Age Victor Pickard, Guobin Yang, 2017-07-06 Media Activism in the Digital Age captures an exciting moment in the evolution of media activism studies and offers an invaluable guide to this vibrant and evolving field of research Victor Pickard and Guobin Yang have assembled essays by leading scholars and activists to provide case studies of feminist technological and political interventions during different historical periods and at local national and global levels Looking at the underlying theories histories politics ideologies tactics strategies and aesthetics the book takes an expansive view of media activism It explores how varieties of activism are mediated through communication technologies how activists deploy strategies for changing the structures of media systems and how governments and corporations seek to police media activism From memes to zines hacktivism to activism this volume considers activist practices involving both older kinds of media and newer digital social and network based forms Media Activism in the Digital Age provides a useful cross section of this growing field for both students and researchers Regarding Manneken Pis Catherine

Emerson, 2017-07-05 Manneken Pis a fountain featuring a bronze child urinating has stood on the same Brussels street corner since at least the mid fifteenth century Since there is no consensus on its meaning it has been used to express many different readings of social relations in a complex city and nation state It has formed part of the festival culture of the city from royal entries to gay pride but has also been exploited in conflicts arising out of war and occupation and the tensions inherent in modern Belgium Drawing on archives histories police reports devotional literature ephemera and a wealth of other sources Catherine Emerson examines how one smaller than lifesized water source has come to embody a certain sort of Brussels identity Security Relations between China and the European Union Emil J. Kirchner, Thomas Christiansen, Han

Dorussen, 2016-09-29 Over the past decade the EU and China have expanded their relations beyond a focus on economic and trade issues to the sphere of security Taking a broad definition of security a multidisciplinary approach and a comparative perspective including scholars from both Europe and China this book provides an in depth analysis of the extent to which the EU and China not only express similar threat concerns or make declarations about joint responses but also adopt concrete measures in the pursuance of security cooperation In particular the book seeks to explore a range of key themes in the field of EU China security cooperation such as nuclear proliferation international terrorist threats and cyber attacks Besides providing an overview of the areas where security cooperation exists and where it does not it also highlights the aspects of convergence and divergence and the reasons for their occurrence Boom and Bust Royce Kurlmelovs, 2018-08-28 This is a cautionary tale About greed irresponsibility and failing to learn from the past Australia s mining boom is still talked about with a sense of awe This once in a lifetime event capped off 25 straight years of economic growth Thanks to mining we sidestepped the worst of the Global Financial Crisis To the rest of the world Australia was an economic miracle And then the boom ended Now Australia is grappling with what that means at a time of rising economic inequality and political upheaval The end of the boom isn t about money it s about people Boom and Bust looks at what happens to those who came into vast wealth only to watch it dry up To those who thought they had a good job for life but didn t The bust didn t just happen on stock market screens it was lived and is still being lived right now in dusty towns and cities all around the country As he did in his bestselling book The Death of Holden Royce Kurlmelovs reveals the reality behind the headlines Boom and Bust is a dirt under the nails look at the winners the losers and the impact of the boom that wasn't meant to end This is a book all Australians should read Brilliant and powerful Nick Xenophon on Royce Kurland's THE DEATH OF HOLDEN Urban Social Listening Justin B. Hollander, Erin Graves, Henry Renski, Cara Foster-Karim, Andrew Wiley, Dibyendu Das, 2016-08-16 This book analyses new software tools and social media data that can be used to explore the attitudes of people in urban places It reports on the findings of several research projects that have experimented with using microblogging data in conjunction with diverse quantitative and qualitative methods including content analysis and advanced multivariate statistics Applied researchers planners and policy makers have only recently begun to explore the potential of Big Data to help understand social attitudes and to potentially inform local policy and development decisions This book provides an original analysis into how Twitter can be used to describe the urban experience and people's perception of place as well as offering significant implications for public policy It will be of great interest to researchers in human geography social media cultural studies and public policy Ukraine Over the Edge Gordon M. Hahn, 2018-02-08 The Ukrainian crisis that dominated headlines in fall 2013 was decades in the making Two great schisms shaped events one within Ukraine its western and southeastern parts divided along cultural and political lines the other was driven by geopolitical factors Competition between Russia and the West exacerbated Ukraine's divisions This study focuses on the historical background and complex causality of the crisis from the rise of mass demonstrations on Kiev's Maidan Nezalezhnosti Independence Square to the making of the post-revolt regime In the context of a new cold war the author sheds light on the role of radical Ukrainian nationalists and neofascists in the February 2014 snipers massacre the ouster of President Viktor Yanukovich and Russia's seizure of Crimea and involvement in the civil war in the eastern region of Donbass Tourism, Cultural Heritage and Urban Regeneration Nicholas Wise, Takamitsu Jimura, 2020-04-01 Urban regeneration is often regarded as the process of renewal or redevelopment of spaces and places There is a need to look at tourism and urban regeneration with a particular focus on cultural heritage Cultural heritage consists of tangible heritage such as historic buildings and intangible heritage such as events The wider need and impact for such work is that places plan for change to keep up with the shifts in demand in the global economy in order for places to maintain a competitive advantage Moreover places need to keep up with the pace of global change or they risk stagnation and decline as increased competition is resulting in increased opportunities and choice for consumers Each chapter in this book explores a specific form of cultural heritage that is driving change in urban spaces Intended for a wide readership the book will appeal to students of urban studies human geography heritage studies and international tourism management as well as experts conducting research in and across these areas Handbook of the International Political Economy of Migration Leila Simona Talani, Simon McMahon, 2015-08-28 This Handbook discusses theoretical approaches to migration studies in general as well as confronting various issues in international migration from a distinctive and unique international political economy perspective With a focus on the relation bet The Revolutionary
