Gustav Visser

Geography Task 2 Research 2014 Mapwork And Gis:

The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, 2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future Re-Mapping Archaeology Mark Gillings, Piraye Hacıgüzeller, Gary Lock, 2018-07-27 Maps have always been a fundamental tool in archaeological practice and their prominence and variety have increased along with a growing range of digital technologies used to collect visualise query and analyse spatial data However unlike in other disciplines the development of archaeological cartographical critique has been surprisingly slow a missed opportunity given that archaeology with its vast and multifaceted experience with space and maps can significantly contribute to the field of critical mapping Re mapping Archaeology thinks through cartographic challenges in archaeology and critiques the existing mapping traditions used in the social sciences and humanities especially since the 1990s It provides a unique archaeological perspective on cartographic theory and innovatively pulls together a wide range of mapping practices applicable to archaeology and other disciplines This volume will be suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as for established researchers in archaeology geography anthropology history landscape studies ethnology and sociology

Landscapes and Landforms of Nigeria Adetoye Faniran, Lawrence Kosoko Jeje, Olutoyin A. Fashae, Adeyemi O. Olusola, 2023-02-28 The book deals with the most striking landscapes and landforms of Nigeria Attention is paid to the diversity of geomorphic features found in the country from the coast to the extreme north approached geographically at the national regional and local scales with a view to highlight the combined influence of geological climatic biotic and anthropogenic influences as well as geoheritage potentials The topics and sites described range from the mainly depositional coastal lagoons and inlets the most prominent of which is the oil rich Niger Delta characterized by the mangrove and rain forest both of which have been seriously modified by human impact through the coastal lowlands and associated hill country with derived deciduous and dry forest vegetation the very prominent Niger Benue Trough and associated features the savanna semi desert covered high plains of the north and the Chad Basin each of which features spectacular landscapes and landforms including human made forms such as cities and cityscapes The book provides the readers with the opportunity to explore the variety of Nigerian landscapes and landforms through informative texts illustrated with color maps and photos it will be relevant to scientists scholars as well as others interested in the geology physical geography geomorphology landscape tourism and other geoheritage related information about the country

Geomorphological Fieldwork, 2014-12-06 Geomorphological Fieldwork addresses a topic that always remains popular within the geosciences and environmental science More specifically the volume conveys a growing legacy of field based learning for young geomorphologists that can be used as a student book for field based university courses and postgraduate research requiring fieldwork or field schools The editors have much experience of field based learning within geomorphology and extend this to physical geography The topics covered are relevant to basic geomorphology as well as applied approaches in environmental and cultural geomorphology The book integrates a physical human approach to geography but focuses on physical geography and geomorphology from an integrated field based geoscience perspective Addresses fluvial and karst landscapes in depth Focuses on field based learning as well as educational geomorphology Conveys experiential knowledge in international contexts
