A Negotiated Landscape Jasper Rubin, 2016-09-27 A Negotiated Landscape examines the transformation of San Francisco's iconic waterfront from the eve of its decline in 1950 to the turn of the millennium What was once a major shipping port is now best known for leisure and entertainment To understand this landscape Jasper Rubin not only explores the built environment but also the major forces that have been at work in its redevelopment While factors such as new transportation technology and economic restructuring have been essential to the process and character of the waterfront s transformation the impact of local grassroots efforts by planners activists and boosters have been equally critical The first edition of A Negotiated Landscape won the 2012 prize for best book in planning history from the International Planning History Society Much has changed in the five years since that edition was published For this second edition Rubin provides a new concluding chapter that updates the progress of planning on San Francisco s waterfront and examines debates over the newest visions for its development

The Innovation Complex Sharon Zukin, 2020-02-03 You hear a lot these days about innovation and entrepreneurship and about how good jobs in tech will save our cities Yet these common tropes hide a stunning reality local lives and fortunes are tied to global capital You see this clearly in metropolises such as San Francisco and New York that have emerged as superstar cities In these cities startups bloom jobs of the future multiply and a meritocracy trained in digital technology backed by investors who control deep pools of capital forms a new class the tech financial elite In The Innovation Complex the eminent urbanist Sharon Zukin shows the way these forces shape the new urban economy through a rich and illuminating account of the rise of the tech sector in New York City Drawing from original interviews with venture capitalists tech evangelists and economic development officials she shows how the ecosystem forms and reshapes the city from the ground up Zukin explores the people and plans that have literally rooted digital technology in the city That in turn has shaped a workforce molded a mindset and generated an archipelago of tech spaces which in combination have produced a now hegemonic innovation culture and geography She begins with the subculture of hackathons and meetups introduces startup founders and venture capitalists and explores the transformation of the Brooklyn waterfront from industrial wasteland to innovation coastline She shows how far beyond Silicon Valley cities like New York are shaped by an influential triple helix of business government and university leaders an alliance that joins C Wright Mills s power elite real estate developers and ambitious avatars of academic capitalism As a result cities around the world are caught between the demands of the tech economy and communities desires for growth a massive and often insurmountable challenge for those who hope to reap the rewards of innovation s success

Everything in Its Place David B. Audretsch, 2015-03-02 Every city region and state wants to do better or at the very least not do worse Places have a strong and vigorous concern with and stake in generating a stronger economic performance This concern spans a broad spectrum of constituents and interests including business labor non profit organizations government and private residents However such decision makers mandated with the strategic management of their place receive little guidance or insight from scholars in terms of a systematic framework for evaluating how to generate and sustain a competitive advantage for their place While an entire academic field exists devoted to analyzing how firms and organizations can create and sustain a competitive advantage and ultimately a strong economic performance the field of strategic management in business schools no such analogous field exists which is devoted to guiding and informing decision makers mandated and concerned with the strategic management of their place Everything in Its Place seeks to fill this intellectual void explaining the underlying economic and social factors and the broad spectrum of policies and instruments that can actually influence and enhance economic performance in places Several academic fields have generated a number of important theories empirical findings and case studies that shed considerable light on identifying and unraveling the underlying forces about what shapes this economic performance Combined in this book with the actual experiences and instincts garnered from practitioners and policy makers these insights are integrated together in into a coherent inclusive framework to guide and inform thought leaders and scholars in the strategic management of places

Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022-09-26 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Despite the rise of global technocratic ideals of city making cities around the world are not merging into indistinguishable duplicates of one another In fact as the world urbanizes urban formations remain diverse in their socioeconomic and spatial characteristics with varying potential to foster economic development and social justice In this book Tom Goodfellow argues that these differences are primarily rooted in politics and if we continue to view cities as economic and technological projects to be managed rather than terrains of political bargaining and contestation the quest for better urban futures is doomed to fail Dominant critical approaches to urban development tend to explain difference with reference to the variegated impacts of neoliberal regulatory institutions This however neglects the multiple ways in which the wider politics of capital accumulation and distribution drive divergent forms of transformation in different urban places In order to unpack the politics that shapes differential urban development this book focuses on East Africa as the global urban frontier the least urbanized but fastest urbanizing region in the world Drawing on a decade of research spanning three case study countries Ethiopia Rwanda and Uganda Politics and the Urban Frontier provides the first sustained book length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them Through a focus on infrastructure investment urban propertyscapes street level trading economies and urban political protest it offers a multi scalar historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world's most dynamic crucible of urban change

The Oxford Handbook of Local Competitiveness David B. Audretsch, Albert N. Link, Mary Lindenstein Walshok, 2015 An analysis of what influences and shapes local competitiveness and what places can do to enhance their economic performance

Lewis, 2017-11-24 There is widespread acceptance of the importance of infrastructure but less agreement about how it should be funded and procured While most public infrastructure is still provided in house or by traditional procurement methods with well researched strengths and weaknesses the development of service concession arrangements has seen a greater emphasis on lifecycle costing risk assessment and asset design as featured in a variety of public private partnership PPP delivery models This book examines the various procurement approaches and provides a framework for comparing their advantages and disadvantages Drawing on international experience it considers some of the best and worst examples of PPPs and infrastructure projects generally along with the lessons for improving infrastructure procurement processes Adapting to Climate Change Matthew Kahn, 2021-03-30 A revelatory study of how climate change will affect individual economic decisions and the broad impact of those choices Selected by Publishers Weekly as one of its Top Ten books in Business and Economics for Spring 2021 It is all but certain that the next century will be hotter than any we've experienced before Even if we get serious about fighting climate change it's clear that we will need to adapt to the changes already underway in our environment This book considers how individual economic choices in response to climate change will transform the larger economy Using the tools of microeconomics Matthew E Kahn explores how decisions about where

Daenzer, 2017-09-14 Civil Society Engagement Achieving Better in Canada examines the process and outcomes of a particular series of civil society activism and establishes a conceptual framework through an examination of Canadian politics and societal change Relying on qualitative and ethnographic research document analysis and reviews of policies the contributions focus on social possibilities legal limits and societal roles to illuminate the national asset of human solidarity evident in civil society activism in Canada Patricia Daenzer and her expert contributors challenge the romanticism of the perfected welfare democracy and contend that civil society activism leads to the authentication of democracy The premise is that Canadian political and policy inconsistencies fail to protect some and civil society intervention is essential for the realignment and redefinition of articulated national principles and redistributive outcomes Although Canada is shown ultimately to be guarded in its welfare commitment this guarded progress in welfare democracy would not be possible without the activism of segments of civil society Civil Society Engagement Achieving Better in Canada demystifies civil society activism and urges greater awareness of current social dynamics and involvement in the lives of the most disadvantaged Not only are new immigrants and refugees voicing for inclusion but the very definition of persons with rights has evolved through civil society activism This book will lead to deliberations about state legal frameworks which impact civil society reach the purpose and scope of Canadian politics and the potential of civil society in perfecting our democracy Resources in Education ,1984 The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette ,1891 The Barsden Memoirs (1799-1816) Grant Rodwell,2022-02-27 Covering the life of Josephus Henry Barsden from his birth in 1799 through his childhood to 16 years of age the Barsden memoirs describe events from a Sussex smugglers inn a convict ship to the colony of New South Wales sealing and whaling expeditions to Van Diemen s Land and Barsden s participation in a Tahitian civil war The author assesses the value of memoirs and of these memoirs in particular to students of history in respect to the transnational paradigm He tests the historicity and veracity of their contents and provides an engaging exegesis and graphical supplement of its contents Of central importance is Barsden s account of the Battle of Fe i Pi which was in many respects the Pacific s equivalent to the contemporaneous Battle of Waterloo such was its lasting impact on Pacific geopolitics This was no ordinary childhood and poses many questions about a transnational adolescent s impact on major events A fascinating read for scholars and students of Australian Pacific and British Colonial History written with academic rigour but accessible to non specialists The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1865 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1865
