Secularism, Decolonisation, and the Cold War in South and Southeast Asia Clemens Six, 2017-07-20 The intensifying conflicts between religious communities in contemporary South and Southeast Asia signify the importance of gaining a clearer understanding of how societies have historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies

Sustainable Transportation in Natural and Protected Areas Francesco Orsi, 2015-07-16 Protected areas are at the centre of nature based tourism which is increasingly popular across the world As visitor numbers increase so does awareness of the harmful effects that large crowds may have on both natural resources and individuals recreational experience This volume considers the challenge of transportation to and within natural and protected areas the improvement of which has already been recognised as having great potential for mitigating the environmental impacts of ecotourism While several books have focused considerable attention to the management of protected areas in general little has been said about the specific issue of sustainable transport an emerging trend that is already reshaping visitation patterns in natural settings This book provides current knowledge on issues associated with the transportation of visitors in natural and protected areas and a comprehensive overview of the technical and strategic options available to tackle these issues It approaches the subject via three main topics preferences or the visitors attitudes towards transportation practices where current approaches are assessed through examples and case studies of successful experiences and methodologies from around the world and policies where suggestions and recommendations are put forward for both local scale strategies and broad scale regulatory action with global relevance Contributors include academics in the field of natural resource management and tourism with extensive experience in protected area management and active partnerships with natural park administrations

Insight Turkey 2015 - Fall 2015 (Vol. 17, No. 4) , Last year was the year of elections in Turkey with two parliamentary elections and months long electoral campaigns that dominated the political agenda of the country The parliamentary elections of June 7 2015 brought an end to the AK Party s 12 year long era of parliamentary majority and single party government in Turkey Nevertheless the endeavors to form a coalition government could not be concluded successfully and another election appeared on the horizon The country was ruled by an AK Party led interim government and the elections were repeated five months later on November 1 2015 While close in time the two elections were quite distant with regard to the political contexts in which they were carried out and in their respective results The November elections witnessed a comeback for the AK Party which increased its votes by over 9 points with the addition of five million new votes in the ballot box

central concerns of mobilities research exploring the broader context and human aspects of movement are fundamental to an understanding of the maritime freight transport sector Challenges to the environment attempts at more sustainable practices changes in the geoeconomic system political power labour economic development and governance issues are all among the topics covered in this book The aim of this volume is to address issues of maritime transport not only in the simple context of movement but within the mobilities paradigm The goal is to examine negative system effects caused by blockages and inefficiencies examine delays and wastage of resources identify negative externalities explore power relations and identify the winners and losers in the globalised trade system with a particular focus on the maritime network Maritime Mobilities therefore aims to build a bridge between traditional maritime academic approaches and the mobilities paradigm This volume is of great importance to those who study industrial economics shipping industries and transport geography The Routledge Research Companion to Geographies of Sex and Sexualities Gavin Brown, Kath Browne, 2016-05-20 Comprehensive and authoritative this state of the art review both charts and develops the rich sub discipline geographies of sexualities exploring sex gender sexuality and sexual practices Emerging from the desire to examine differences and exclusions as a key aspect of human geographies these geographies have engaged with heterosexual and queer lesbian gay bi and trans lives Developing thinking in this area geographers and other social scientists have illustrated the centrality of place space and other spatial relationships in reconstituting sexual practices representations desires as well as sexed bodies and lives This book reviews the current state of the field and offers new insights from authors located on five continents In doing so the book seeks to draw on and influence core debates in this field as well as disrupt the Anglo American hegemony in studies of sexualities sexes and geographies This volume is the definitive collection in the area bringing together many international leaders in the field alongside scholars that are well established outside the Anglophone academy and many emerging talents who will lead the field in the decades to come Walking Inside Out Tina Richardson, 2015-07-07 Walking Inside Out is the first text that attempts to merge the work of literary and artist practitioners with academics to critically explore the state of psychogeography today The collection explores contemporary psychogeographical practices shows how a critical form of walking can highlight easily overlooked urban phenomenon and examines the impact that everyday life in the city has on the individual Through a variety of case studies it offers a British perspective of international spaces from the British metropolis to the post communist European city By situating the current strand of psychogeography within its historical political and creative context along with careful consideration of the challenges it faces Walking Inside Out offers a vision for the future of the discipline Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy Paul Yae-Woo Lee, Kevin Cullinane, 2016-01-26 This two volume book presents an in depth analysis of many of the most important issues facing today's shipping and port sectors Volume 2 of Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy focuses on the emerging trends in ports Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar, 2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa s major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa s most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism

Migration, Ethics and Power Dan Bulley, 2016-11-03 In 2014 the ethics and politics of hospitality were brought into stark relief Three years into the Syrian conflict which had already created nearly 2.5 million refugees and internally displaced 6.5 million the UN called on industrialised countries to share the burden of offering hospitality through a fixed quota system The UK opted out of the system whilst hailing their acceptance of a moral responsibility by welcoming only 500 of the most vulnerable Syrians Given the state s exclusionary character what opportunities do other spaces in international politics offer by way of hospitality to migrants and refugees Hospitality can take many different forms and have many diverse purposes But wherever it occurs the boundaries that enable it and make it possible are both created and unsettled via exercises of power and their resistance Through modern examples including refugee camps global cities postcolonial states and Europe as well as analysis of Derridean and Foucauldian concepts Migration Ethics and Power explores The process and practice of hospitality The spaces that hospitality produces The intimate relationship between ethics and power This is a brilliantly contemporary text for students of politics international relations and political geography
