Reading for Understanding Ruth Schoenbach, Cynthia Greenleaf, Lynn Murphy, 2012-06-15 As elegantly practical as it is theoretically elegant It is a guided tour as one examines the tools of expert teachers as they engage students in a journey that is aptly dubbed Reading Apprenticeship learning how to become a savvy strategic reader under the tutelage of thoughtful caring and demanding teachers P David Pearson University of California Berkeley and founding editor of the Handbook of Reading Research Reading for Understanding is a monumental achievement It was a monumental achievement when it came out as a first edition in 1999 bringing years of rigorous reading research together in a framework for teaching that made sense in actual secondary school classrooms Now just thirteen years later Schoenbach and Greenleaf have several randomized clinical trials and multiple on going studies at their fingertips to demonstrate the effects of this approach for developing the reading and thinking of young people in our nation s middle and high school classrooms as well as in community college classrooms Their careful work on developing disciplinary literacy among all students represents a passion for and commitment to supporting students and their teachers in reading for understanding which translates to reading for enjoyment self awareness learning and for purposeful and informed action in our society Elizabeth Moje Arthur F Thurnau Professor and Associate Dean for Research School of Education University of Michigan Reading Apprenticeship has proven to be an inspiration to Renton Technical College faculty and students alike They have learned together to view themselves as readers in transformative ways as they embrace powerful techniques to increase reading comprehension The ideas and strategies in Reading for Understanding anchor this new and broad based energy around reading and an enthusiasm among our faculty to model effective reading strategies for our students Steve Hanson President Renton Technical College Renton Washington Reading for Understanding has the finest blend I have seen of research strategies and classroom vignettes to deepen teacher learning and help them connect the dots between theory and practice Curtis Refior Content Area Literacy Coach Fowlerville Community Schools Fowlerville Michigan A teacher tested research based resource for dramatically improving reading skills Published in partnership with WestEd this significantly updated second edition of the bestselling book contains strategies for helping students in middle school through community college gain the reading independence to master subject area textbooks and other material Based on the Reading Apprenticeship program which three rigorous gold standard research studies have shown to be effective in raising students reading achievement Presents a clear framework for improving the reading and subject area learning of all students including English learners students with special needs as well as those in honors and AP courses Provides concrete tools for classroom use and examples from a range of classrooms Presents a clear how to for teachers implementing the subject area literacies of the Common Core Standards Reading for Understanding proves it s never too late for teachers and students to work together to boost literacy engagement and achievement

Young Adult Literature and Culture Harry Eiss, 2009-03-26 This book offers a multifaceted approach to the world of young adults everything from Ray Schrock s use of Walter Dean Myers sports stories to discuss race relations and cultural politics to Joyce Litton s analysis of the highly popular Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants Quartet The cover illustration is done by Joel Rudinger based on his experiences with the Inuit where he learned many of their legends and myths resulting in his own excellent work on Sedna the creation goddess a story filled with deep tragedy mystery and the world of the spirits This mythic world slides into the discussion of Harry Eiss one that focuses on The Isis Trilogy best known of Monica Hughes many works who writes Science fiction and fantasy in particular are valid carriers of myth for the 20th century and most especially for young people Margaret Best and Susann deVries also give us literature that uses science They begin The science fair project is the central metaphor and the reality in Paul Zindel s The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man in the Moon Marigolds 1970 Christopher Paul Curtis s Bucking the Sarge 2004 and Joyce Maynard s The Cloud Chamber 2005 After providing an overview science fiction Sally Sugarman offers a study of the entire genre For this study two hundred and thirty nine high school students from two schools in Vermont and Massachusetts were surveyed Alethea K Helbig provides an overview of her important activities promoting literature for the young She was a seminal scholar and educator when colleges and universities were just beginning to take the study of such literature seriously when English departments were initiating serious undergraduate and graduate classes in what previously had been seen as inferior literature Her life itself provides us with an entertaining and historically valuable autobiographical account of a person at the center of the change that has taken and continues to take place Jerry Loving expands the horizons of the entire collection of essays providing a firsthand account of how the young are educated in China including a detailed history It begins I have been traveling to mainland China at least 4 to 6 times a year as a teacher or education evaluator since 2002 As the visits and years passed I watched the education system of China slowly improve to the level my schools were like when I went to school in the 50 s and 60 s
