Red Green's Beginner's Guide to Women Red Green, 2014-10-14. Red Green's wisdom, wit, and whimsy on mankind's greatest challenge now, in paperback. Red Green is celebrated as one of the handiest men in North America. But as well as being a purveyor of inventive practical advice, for example, making a jetpack from two propane tanks, a hybrid car from recycled golf carts and satellite dishes, and a kiddie ride from a bar stool attached to the agitator of a washing machine, Red Green is also noted for his insights into that most difficult of assembly jobs: human relationships. His previous bestselling tome, How to Do Everything, showed Red dipping his toe into the self-help genre with such items as How to make dinner more romantic and The easy way to raise children. Now Red Green, a veteran husband, father, soul searcher, philosopher, and observer, has devoted an entire book to sharing with other battle-weary and confused males all he has learned about the differences between the sexes. Set out in approximately chronological order, from teen dating to the last words of men, you know honey, in the last couple of years you've really packed on the beef. This is the testosterone owner's manual to every aspect of finding a mate and then learning to deal with her growing disappointment in you. The man who has already shared such morsels as If you can't be handsome, be handy and Quando omni flunkus morituri. When all else fails, play dead. Here presents a Ph.D. in life lessons about the most vexing problem facing mankind today or any day: women.

A Modern Dog's Life Paul McGreevy, 2010-05-18. An animal behavior expert combines sensible information with charming wit in an entertaining guide for new and veteran dog owners. Ken Foster, author of The Dogs Who Found Me. What do dogs value? Why do they get so excited by their daily walks? And why do canines of different breeds have different needs? Veterinarian and professor of animal behavior, Dr. Paul McGreevy, answers these questions and many more, explaining what life is like from a pooch's perspective, including a special section about dogs and city living. Filled with humor and memorable characters, including Uncle Wolf and Feral Cheryl, this guide offers insights from recent studies on how dogs see, smell, and experience the world. Explanations of canine behavior accompanied with over forty action photos. Tips on everything from petting them to calming them at the vet's. User-friendly training techniques that build skills gradually and keep your pet motivated. Dr. McGreevy offers an exciting new approach to training a dog. By acting as a life coach rather than an alpha dog or parent, and by looking at the process as a fun opportunity for you and your pet to grow closer and learn new skills, you can greatly improve your dog's quality of life and teach good behavior at the same time. Science, experience, and common sense. Your dog will want you to read it. Mark Evans, chief veterinary adviser, Royal Society.
