The wide range of issues concerning professional development of teachers have been examined by the researcher. Different components of teacher education covered in this book are: search for viable curriculum framework for teacher education programme, research issues in ODL based teacher education, professional development of teachers, teacher preparation, use of ICT, specific competencies like preparation for teaching, preparation of teaching and its use, students evaluation, school management and planning, community participation, co-curricular activities and use of teaching materials etc. The book brings out empirical evidences on the relevance and effectiveness of ODL mode teacher education programme. Various issues in distance teacher education programmes along with professional development of in-service teachers have been discussed in detail. This book will be useful to the students of teacher education, teacher educators, researchers, experts and policy makers concerning teacher education system.

Handbook of Research on Ecosystem-Based Theoretical Models of Learning and Communication Railean, Elena A., 2019-03-22 ICT and globalization have completely redefined learning and communication. People virtually connect to collaborate with and learn from other individuals. Because educational technology has matured considerably since its inception, there are still many issues in the design of learner centered environments. The Handbook of Research on Ecosystem Based Theoretical Models of Learning and Communication is an essential reference source that discusses learning and communication ecosystems and the strategic role of trust at different levels of the information and knowledge society. Featuring research on topics such as global society, life long learning and nanotechnology, this book is ideally designed for educators, instructional designers, principals, administrators, professionals, researchers and students.

Four Decades of Distance Education in India Suresh Garg, 2006 The evolution of distance education in India in forms of dual mode, single mode and consortia has been phenomenal. The system today is one of the largest distance education networks in the world comprising dual mode university distance education institutes single mode open universities dual mode secondary education single mode open schools distance education council consortium and many private and semi government providers of education and training The four generations of distance education have been implemented in a variety of forms and models and the system exhibits adoption of innovative practices in course design development delivery evaluation media networking and planning and management which have proved effective in addressing the issues of access and equity economy quality and reform in the country and which have been adapted emulated by a host of such systems in the developing world It is therefore imperative at this stage to reflect on the developments of above four decades of distance education in this country and map its future expansion Each chapter in the volume reflects on the concerned theme covering the distance education system in the country traces the limitations and adoption of innovative strategies to address the issues and introspect on its future possibilities Journal of Education & Psychology Thekkey Kottiejath Narayana Menon,1998
