Alex and Gigi at first are friends, Alex obviously patronizing his new acquaintance, but the relationships between them develop rather fast, which can be considered from the information – persuasion dyad: it is evident that on the early stage of their relationships, the couple exchanged information about each other, while on the latter stages of their relations, both tried to persuade each other in their irresistibility and create more intimate relationships.

Their conversations are honest and they spend a lot of time together which makes Gigi jump to conclusion that Alex likes her because of the signs that she's seen, "like it was good to hear from me, you talked to me even when you were with a girl, and I felt something." Gigi explains to Alex some of the signs. Gigi obviously misread the signs as an invitation to proceed to a romantic intimate level since Alex denied any feelings
