Intimate Strangers English Edition:

Intimate Strangers Margaret Laurence, Gabrielle Roy, 2004-12-02 The books of Margaret Laurence and Gabrielle Roy are among the most beloved in Canadian literature In 1976 when both were at the height of their careers they began a seven year written correspondence Laurence had just published her widely acclaimed The Diviners for which she won her second Governor General's Award and Roy had returned to the centre of the literary stage with a series of books that many critics now consider her richest and most mature works Although both women had been born and raised in Manitoba Laurence in Neepawa and Roy in St Boniface they met only once in 1978 at a conference in Calgary As these letters reveal their prairie background created a common understanding of place and culture that bridged the differences of age and language Here Laurence and Roy discuss everything from their own and each other's writing to Canadian politics housekeeping publishing and their love of nature With a thoughtful introduction by Paul G Socken these lovely and intimate letters record the moving affectionate friendship between two remarkable women

Strangers in Berlin Rachel Elana Seelig, 2016-09-19 Berlin in the 1920s was a cosmopolitan hub where for a brief vibrant moment German Jewish writers crossed paths with Hebrew and Yiddish migrant writers Working against the prevailing tendency to view German and East European Jewish cultures as separate fields of study Strangers in Berlin is the first book to present Jewish literature in the Weimar Republic as the product of the dynamic encounter between East and West Whether they were native to Germany or sojourners from abroad Jewish writers responded to their exclusion from rising nationalist movements by cultivating their own images of homeland in verse and they did so in three languages German Hebrew and Yiddish Author Rachel Seelig portrays Berlin during the Weimar Republic as a threshold between exile and homeland in which national and artistic commitments were reexamined reclaimed and rebuilt In the pulsating yet precarious capital of Germany's first fledgling democracy the collision of East and West engendered a broad spectrum of poetic styles and Jewish national identities

The Dramatic Index for ... Frederick Winthrop Faxon, Mary Estella Bates, Anne C. Sutherland, 1923 Issues for 1912 16 1919 accompanied by an appendix The Dramatic books and plays in English title varies slightly This bibliography was incorporated into the main list in 1917 18

The Dramatic Index, 1923 The Irish in the West of Scotland, 1797-1848 Martin Mitchell, 2001-01-01 The prevailing historical view of the Catholic Irish in the first half of nineteenth century Scotland is that they were despised by native workers because of their religion and because most were employed as strike breakers or low wage labour As a result of this hostility the Catholic immigrants were viewed as a separate isolated community concerned mainly with Irish and Catholic issues and unable or unwilling to participate in trade unions strikes and radical reform movements The Protestant Irish immigrants on the other hand were believed to have integrated with little difficulty mainly because of religious families and cultural ties with the Scots This study presents a radically different view It demonstrates that whereas some Irish workers were used as a blackleg or cheap labour others participated in trade unions and strikes alongside native workers most notably in spinning weaving and mining industries The various agitations for political change in the region are analysed revealing that the Irish Catholic and Protestant were significantly involved in all of them It is also shown that Scottish reformers welcomed and indeed actively sought Catholic Irish participation The campaigns for Catholic emancipation and the repeal of the Act of Union of 1800 are reviewed as are the attitudes of the Scottish Catholic clergy to the political activities of their overwhelmingly Irish congregations Film – An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael

Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässige Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk über Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia New Perspectives on Brecht

Expressionism Christian Weikop, 2017-07-05 New Perspectives on Brecht Expressionism Bridging History brings together highly renowned international art historians in a scholarly work that offers the first full length reassessment in English of the importance of the Brecht group to German modernism specifically and to international modernism more generally It challenges interrogates and updates existing orthodoxies in the field of Brecht studies by deploying new research combined with innovative interpretative approaches This is an exciting volume of essays with an interlinking tripartite structure that charts the significance of this pioneering German avant garde group in relation to various critical themes namely cultural and material identity collectivity and selfhood as well as defamation and rehabilitation The book is unique in the field in that it seeks to excavate specific historical research relating to the activities of the Brecht as a bohemian yet nonetheless enterprising artists community and considers the contributions of the key members in relation to the dynamics of that group rather than simply on an individual basis It thoroughly explores the historiography of the Brecht artists reception throughout the turbulent history of the twentieth century up until the present day The Two Unions Alvin Jackson, 2012 Alvin Jackson examines the two Unions the Anglo Scots Union of 1707 and the British Irish of 1801 comparing their background birth and survival In sustaining a comparison between the Unions he illuminates the long history and current state of the United Kingdom Writing a New World Dale Spender, 1988 A history still in the making Australian women writers through their letters diaries and fictions have created a new world of literature Dale Spender in this lively and provocative history of white women's literature presents a fresh and forthright view of the achievements of convict writers to writers and feminists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Academics in Exile Vera Axyonova, Florian Kohstall, Carola Richter, 2022-06-07

Restrictions on academic freedom persecution and armed conflict have forced many scholars into exile So far the professional trajectories of these scholars and their contributions to knowledge exchange have not been studied comprehensively The contributors to this volume address the situations and networks of scholars in exile the challenges they face in their host countries and the opportunities they use These issues are highly relevant to discussions about the moral economies of higher education institutions and support programs Although the contributions largely focus on Germany as a host country they also offer telling examples of forced mobility in the Global South including both contemporary and historical perspectives
