Introduction Agrave La Psychanalyse:

Margins of Religion John Llewelyn, 2008-12-17 Pursuing Jacques Derrida's reflections on the possibility of religion without religion John Llewelyn makes room for a sense of the religious that does not depend on the religions or traditional notions of God or gods Beginning with Derrida's statement that it was Kierkegaard to whom he remained most faithful Llewelyn reads Kant Hegel Nietzsche Feuerbach Heidegger Sartre Levinas Deleuze Marion as well as Kierkegaard and Derrida in original and compelling ways Llewelyn puts religiousness in vital touch with the struggles of the human condition finding religious space in the margins between the secular and the religions transcendence and immanence faith and knowledge affirmation and despair lucidity and madness This provocative and philosophically rich account shows why and where the religious matters Leo Bersani Mikko Tuhkanen, 2020-11-12 For the past 60 years Leo Bersani has inspired resisted guided and challenged scholarly work in the fields of literary criticism queer theory cultural studies psychoanalytic theory and film and visual studies Moving across an impressive range of sources Mikko Tuhkanen seeks out the fundamental notes the questions that we find and re-find in Bersani's extensive oeuvre across the decades The chapters explore Bersani's engagement with psychoanalytic theory Freud Laplanche Klein Lacan French and American modernist fiction Proust Baudelaire Mallarmé James Beckett poststructuralist theory Derrida Foucault Deleuze Guattari Blanchot queer theory Butler Edelman and the visual arts Caravaggio Almodóvar Pasolini Malick Dumont This first introduction to Bersani's work provides a chronological overview of his thought and details his contributions to literary studies and critical theory Queer Maghrebi French Denis M Provencher, 2017-06-06 Queer Maghrebi French investigates the lives and stories of queer Maghrebi and Maghrebi French men who moved to or grew up in contemporary France and how these queer men living in France and the diaspora stake claims to time and space construct kinship and imagine their own future Differences Emily Parker, Anne M. Van Leeuwen, 2018 Simone de Beauvoir and Luce Irigaray famously insisted on their philosophical differences and this mutual insistence has largely guided the reception of their thought What does it mean to return to Simone de Beauvoir and Luce Irigaray in light of questions and problems of contemporary feminism including intersectional and queer criticisms of their projects How should we now take up amplify and surpass the horizons opened by their projects Seeking answers to these questions the essays in this volume return to Beauvoir and Irigaray to find what the two philosophers share And as the authors make clear the richness of Beauvoir and Irigaray's thought far exceeds the reductive parameters of the Eurocentric bourgeois second wave debates that have constrained interpretation of their work The first section of this volume places Beauvoir and Irigaray in critical dialogue exploring the place of the material and the corporeal in Beauvoir's thought and in doing so reading Beauvoir in a framework that goes beyond a theory of gender and the humanism of phenomenology The essays in the second section of the volume take up the challenge of articulating points of dialogue between the two focal philosophers in logic ethics and politics Combined these essays resituate Beauvoir and

Irigaray's work both historically and in light of contemporary demands breaking new ground in feminist philosophy The Sexual/Political Lorenzo Bernini, 2023-06-28 The Sexual Political engages with contemporary political issues in sexuality through a survey of modern philosophy psychoanalytic thought 20th century political theory and more recent queer philosophies The book investigates how the sexual has perturbed philosophical political and psychoanalytic thought and how this has fed into discrimination against the LGBTQI community It analyses the social stigmas applied to public and private sexual acts and the psychopolitical processes leading to the prevalence of neo fascist populism in Italy and the world Tracing the history of sexuality through Freud Marx Fanon and Foucault among many others Bernini considers why the sexual has always been an exceptionally difficult object to consider in political theory This book will be of key interest to scholars in queer theory antisocial theory psychoanalysis and politics drive theory political philosophy critical theory LGBTQIA issues gender and sexuality studies and Italian studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Revue française de psychanalyse, 1948 Unsettling Montaigne Elizabeth Guild, 2014 Striking new readings of Montaigne's works focussing on such concepts as scepticism and tolerance Montaigne's Essais 1580-1592 are one of the most remarkable works of the European Renaissance The Essais innovative open mindedness is at odds with the dogmatism and intolerance of their times the decades of civil and religious wars in France and their tolerant and searching human questions and ethics of difference remain compelling for twenty first century readers But the sceptical open endedness that vitalizes this writing is also often troubled and troubling personal losses and the collapse of cultural ideals moved Montaigne to write and their attendant anxieties are not resolved into tranquil reflection Unsettling Montaigne reassesses Montaigne's scepticism Informed by psychoanalytic and related theory its close attention to Montaigne's complex uses of metaphor illuminates the psychic economy of his scepticism and tolerance and their poetics while new readings of his Essais and other texts reveal the significance of disquieting questions thought and affect for the ethos his writing fosters The analysis deals with figures such as cannibals and cannibalism hunger shaking tickling place the brother and haunting in Montaigne's exploration of concepts which tested his understanding and self understanding The volume also demonstrates how figuration supports openness to difference for both writer and readers and is fundamental to this writing's aesthetic psychic and ethical creativity Elizabeth Guild lectures in French at the University of Cambridge and is a Fellow of Robinson College

Queer Sexualities in French and Francophone Literature and Film, 2015-07-14 The steady development of queer theory over the last two decades has provided useful analytical tools and the will to dismiss the watchdog of heteronormativity Modes of reading have evolved as this volume of FLS amply attests Following Bill Edmiston's introduction to the volume a concise and informative history of queer theory the fifteen articles reveal not surprisingly significant diversity One deals with queerness in the context of medieval writing where allegorical and euphemistic expression were understood to be irreconcilable

Another treats translations in Early Modern France of an Ovidian fable that had an inconvenient lesbian dimension Rousseau's fixation on his bottom e.g. for spankings points to a queer streak while Gautier's Mademoiselle de Maupin enhances the theme of sexual misidentity with ornamental figures The queerness of Sand's La Mare au diable emerges in the course of a contrasexual reading A musicologist investigates the possibility of a lesbian esthetics of music in a work by Erik Satie while a literary scholar finds evidence of Proust's outing in Jean Santeuil Other articles address the sense of gender transformation wrought by sodomy a revised view on the writing subject in Jean Genet's fiction the queerness of heterosexuality in the works of Michel Houellebecq and recurring motifs in recent fiction produced by gay Paris Two of the articles treat activism and esthetics in film
