English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1884 Mirrors of Self Jonathan P. Badgett, 2021-10-14 Orthodox Christology maintains that Jesus Christ is both truly God and truly human As such he is the key to knowing both God and self In a series of applications of christological anthropology Mirrors of Self develops this epistemic premise in dialogue with a diversity of Christian and secular historical and modern perspectives Aspects of human personhood including the ever elusive self gain greater clarity and significance in the light of Christ s person and work At the center of individual human subjectivity we encounter a broken sin blinded self in need of renewal and release What healing we find comes to us as Christ s ecological presence works in and through others the mirrors of self whose instrumental agency Christ employs in service to his own redemptive ends Darkening Mirrors Stephanie Leigh Batiste, 2011 In an important contribution to African American film and performance history Stephanie Batiste looks back at African American stage and screen productions of the 1930s

Taha Husain's Education Abdelrashid Mahmoudi, 2014-04-23 Taha Husein is rightly regarded as the father of modern Arabic literature and his work is widely used as introductory texts for students of the language In this highly original book Dr Mahmoudi describes Husein s cultural and intellectual journey through his education in Egypt and France Husein s humanism and modernism can be traced from his time at the al Azhar through his time in the influential circle of Ahmad Lutfi al Sayyid to his famous study mission to France where he witnessed the twilight of positivism Taha Husein s Education will add to our understanding of this great Egyptian author and the contexts that shaped and informed his thought The Gospel According to Mark James R. Edwards, 2002 This new Pillar volume offers exceptional commentary on Mark that clearly shows the second Gospel though it was a product of the earliest Christian community to be both relevant and sorely needed in today s church Written by a biblical scholar who has devoted thirty years to the study of the second Gospel this commentary aims primarily to interpret the Gosepl of Mark according to its theological intentions and purposes especially as they relate to the life and ministry of Jesus and the call to faith and discipleship Unique features of James Edwards s approach include clear descriptions of key terms used by Mark and revealing discussion of the Gospel s literary features including Mark s use of the sandwich technique and of imagistic motifs and irony Edwards also proposes a new paradigm for interpreting the difficult Little Apocalypse of chapter 13 and he argues for a new understanding of Mark's controversial ending

Creation's Slavery and Liberation Presian Renee Burroughs, 2022-11-03 What did the apostle Paul mean when he portrayed the creation as subjected to frustration and enslaved to destruction What forms of frustration and destruction might he have seen throughout the Roman Empire And how would he describe creation's condition today Creation's Slavery and Liberation addresses these questions by tracing the story of creation as it appears in Paul's own Scriptures the Tanakh Roman imperial propaganda Paul's letter to Rome and U.S. industrial agriculture This story reveals God to be the Creator who makes right justifies and makes alive through Jesus Christ and the Spirit Because God liberates justifies and vivifies the entire creation and since according to Paul creation's liberation is linked to humanity's glorification Paul expects Christians to pursue justice and nourish life Burroughs encapsulates key justice oriented and life supporting practices in seven eco ethical principles To make these principles come alive she describes the ways in which Roman imperial and American industrial regimes have caused injustice and destruction and instead she proposes more regenerative approaches to growing enjoying and sharing our daily bread

A Critical Companion to the 'Mirrors for Princes' Literature, 2022-12-05 Why devote a Companion to the mirrors for princes whose very existence is debated These texts offer key insights into political thoughts of the past Their ambiguous problematic status further enhances their interest And although recent research has fundamentally challenged established views of these texts until now there has been no critical introduction to the genre This volume therefore fills this important gap while promoting a global historical perspective of different mirrors for princes traditions from antiquity to humanism via Byzantium Persia Islam and the medieval West This Companion also proposes new avenues of reflection on the anchoring of these texts in their historical realities Contributors are Makram Abb's Denise Aigle Olivier Biaggini Hugo Bizzarri Charles F Briggs Sylv'ne Edouard Jean

Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship Socio-Anthropological Approaches to Religion David W. Kim, Duncan

Wright, 2024-02-14 Socio Anthropological Approaches to Religion Environmental Hope interprets the fundamental functions of spirituality through the theories and practices of hope and understanding the futuristic aspiration of new religious movements. The book portrays a neutral notion of hope that can be either religious or humanistic in the face of the suffering or despair of present reality. The concept of hope or hopelessness is demonstrated in each chapter under the global circumstance of health risk. Part One represents the various theories of hope in Christian history, ecology and climate, the Sabbath and surveillance and the triune God. The insecure situation that creates the expectation of hope is demonstrated in Part Two where the case studies of terrorist attacks, immigration, volunteering behavior, religious education and medieval Islamic tradition indicate social unbalance. The last section illustrates the cultural anthropology of hope through the activities of different native new religious movements including the Moonies, Unification movement, Yoruba, Nigerian indigenous spirituality and Cosmovisions of Sepik New Guinea. This book examines hope as a crucial element of human's internal healing beyond medical technology.

Prosecuting Environmental Harm before the International Criminal Court Matthew Gillett, 2022-05-19. The threat of anthropocentric environmental harm grows more pressing each year. Around the world, human activities are devastating the natural environment and contributing to potentially irreversible climate change. This book explores the ways in which the International Criminal Court may effectively prosecute those who cause or contribute to serious environmental destruction. Written by an international lawyer who has prosecuted cases of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide, it provides insights into the procedures, laws and techniques capable of leading to convictions against those who harm the environment.

Mirrors of the Divine Emily R. Cain, 2023-01-30. Mirrors of the Divine brings into focus how four influential authors of the late ancient world—Tertullian of Carthage, Clement of Alexandria, Gregory of Nyssa and Augustine of Hippo—employ language of vision and of mirrors in their discursive struggles to construct Christian agency, identity and epistemology. Early Christian authors described the vision of God through the Pauline verse 1 Corinthians 13:12: "For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then we will see face to face." Yet each author interpreted this verse differently based on a diverse set of assumptions about how they understood seeing and mirrors: to function, does vision occur by something leaving or entering the eye? Is one impacted by seeing or by being seen? Do mirrors offer trustworthy knowledge? Spanning the second through fourth centuries CE in both Eastern and Western Christianity, Mirrors of the Divine analyzes these four authors' theological writings on vision and knowledge of God to explore how contradictory theories of sight shaped their cosmologies, theologies, subjectivities, genders and discursive worlds. As Emily R. Cain demonstrates, how the authors portray eyes reveals how they envisioned one's relationship to the world, while how they portray mirrors reveals how they imagined the unknown. Both have dramatic impacts on how one interprets what it means to see God through a mirror dimly. She shows that arguments about the phenomenon of visual perception are deeply intertwined with broader debates about identity, agency and epistemology and uncovers some of the most self-conscious ways that late ancient Christians thought of themselves their worlds and their God
