Quinn,Cecil H. Clough,P. E. H. Hair,Paul Edward Hedley Hair,1994-01-01 For half a century David Beers Quinn wrote on the history of the early relationship between England and North America This volume was presented in tribute to his meticulous and authoritative but cautious scholarship on the occasion of his 85th birthday. It includes his Reflections on a lifetime of research and his bibliography. But his interests in the early period of the expansion of Europe have never been limited to England or North America and this volume accordingly takes as its theme the widest historical context of the subject and period: the whole European outthrust and encounter in its first phase. Ten contributions by recognized scholars provide select exemplars to serve as a stimulating introduction to this vast theme. Three overview essays deal with specific regions of the outthrust chosen because of differences in outcome: Ethiopia, the Far East, and Siberia. The remaining essays consider specific episodes in localities ranging from Guayana to China and their discursive echoes and are essentially concerned with a leading feature of David Quinn's scholarship: the discovery, examination, and interpretation of sources. A preliminary essay discusses the theme and links the various contributions within a framework of critical generalization.

Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli, 2011-04-30 The interface between the current Shi'ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East. Sasan Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers' encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian-Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran. The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes, and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought. He also studies Muslim-Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non-governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals: Abdol Karim Soroush, Mostafa Malekian, and Mojtaba Shabestari. Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post revolution Iran Tavassoli relates concrete religious cultural and socio political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi i Islam Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world
